Columbus police force rebelled tonight when called upon by Mayor Marshall to board street cars in an effort to protect non-union carmen and to catch persons who have been attacking cars nightly with stones, bricks and bullets.
The mutineers, Mayor Marshall announces, will be dismissed from the department tomorrow.The mayor called upon only the regular policemen to assume the duty on cars. One hundred and thirty-seven special policemen, engaged especially for riot duty in connection with the strike, were not drawn upon for this service, as they were assigned to places about the city where trouble was expected. Included in the thirty-five who refused to board the cars are some of the oldest and bravest men on the force.Mayor Opposed to Plan.
Until today Mayor Marshall had withstood pressure brought to bear by officials of the Columbus Railway and Light Company to put officers on cars.
City officials and leading members of the chamber of commerce joined in urging the mayor to take this step, and he consented, although he said

Don Jaime, the Carlist pretender to the throne, today issued a letter addressed to the leaders of the Carlism, in which he advises his followers to resist with all their force the rising tide of radicalism, but not to have recourse to violence.The pretender says that he does not propose to depart from pacific methods unless the existing regime is threat-

One of the recipients of the letter said today:"We are well organized, and ready to rise at a signal, but will attempt nothing against the present dynasty unless the king totally forgets his title of Catholic majesty, or revolution breaks out. For us, the dynasty question is secondary to the essential point, which is the preservation of the relig-

MARKSMEN THROG RIFLE RANGES AT CAMP PERRY, OHIO, FOR BIG CONTESTSCamp Perry, Ohio, August 12.—The splendid rifle ranges of the state of Ohio here are thronged with marksmen from all parts of the country.
Matches are being held daily, and the constant crack of rifles and pistol denotes practice for the matches that are yet to be held. The targets aremanned, and the scores recorded by soldiers and marines of the army and navy and much of the expense of the tournament is borne by the government. The national matches are to be held later during the meet, and the contest for the famous Wimbledon cup is attracting much attention. The cupwas presented to the National Rifle Association in 1876 and has been contested annually with the exception of during the Spanish-American war, when no match was scheduled. Victor H. Czeglka is the present holder of the cup. Many other valuable trophies are to be contested for before the tourna-

FIXED FOR SEPTEMBER 15Cannon Situation Difficult to Handle—Beverly Headquar-

Moves Quiet, but Effective.
Rivalry Springs Up Between Senator Crane and Hitchcock.Beverly, Mass., August 12.—Certain events of today, following incidents of the past week or so, lead inevitably to the conclusion that a complete readjustment in circles close to President Taft is in progress.Senator Nelson W. Aldrich, of Rhode Island, called to see the president early today before the chief executive had finished his morning meal. He talked with the president thirty-five minutes.
He found that Mr. Taft had not had an opportunity to read the senator's reply to Senator Bristow's charges regarding the rubber tariff. The president was gratified, however, that Senator Aldrich had consented to make a statement. In doing so, it is said, the senator from Rhode Island performed an act which fitted exactly into a program which has been framed by party leaders close to the president.Readjustment Has Begun.
Although he is not to retire until March 4, 1911, and Senator Aldrich confirmed to President Taft today his intention to do so, the readjustment plans which plainly are in progress apparently treat whatever influence Mr. Aldrich may have had with the president as a thing of the past.The elimination of Mr. Aldrich, according to close political observers, is soon to be followed by the retirement of Secretary Richard Ballinger from the cabinet. The republican party is facing one of the most crucial campaigns in its history this fall, and the leaders, who have been coming more and more into influence with the president, are arriving daily to do all they can to bring about an adjustment of the differences within the party.Ballinger to Return to the Law.
Mr. Ballinger practically has lost all of his personal fortune in defending himself from the attacks that have been made upon him. It is said that one attorney fee alone in the congressional investigation cost him $10,000. If the secretary is to recover these losses, it is said, he must soon return to the law.

THE MAYOR CONTINUES TO SHOW IMPROVEMENT
New York, August 12.—Midnight: "The Mayor continues to show improvement. He is sleeping at this time." The foregoing was signed by Drs. Stewart and Arlitz.New York, August 12.—Another day has passed and Mayor William J. Gaynor, shot in the neck on Tuesday by James J. Gallagher, shows no symptoms of blood poisoning. He continues to rest well, to take nourishment when desired, and, if the bulletin his surgeons are issuing discloses nothing, his condition is favorable toward ultimate recovery. The bugbear of sep-ticemia is not yet passed, however, nor is the possibility that an artery or blood vessel has been scraped by the bullet. With these possibilities ever-present, he is still in the danger zone and will be for a week more.The same feeling of anxiety that was evidenced last night is felt in lesser degree tonight, but there is no going behind the official bulletins.Physicians Remain Hopeful.
There were reports that the mayor's temperature had increased slightly during the afternoon, but no bulletin to this effect was issued. On the contrary, his physicians maintain their hopeful attitude. Reports that his pulse was weaker also found no official confirmation. All of the heads of the city departments called at the hospital during the day, but few were allowed to see the patient, and then for a fleeting moment. Mr. Arthur and David remained at the bedside almost constantly throughout the day.
One of the most cheerful statements of the day came from the mayor's son, Rufus, who said this afternoon:Mayor's Son Hopeful.
"Barring accident, Mayor Gaynor's recovery is practically assured."
Robert Adamson, the mayor's secretary, explaining that "barring accident" referred to the possibility that an artery or vein had been injured by the bullet and might begin to slough off at any time. This is a contingency which must be reckoned with for at least a week to come. Concerning an op-

Registration—Other City Ordinances Not Interfered With.The automobile regulation bill passed by the legislature and which will become a law on September 1, has aroused the interest of automobile owners all over the state, and they are flooding the office of Secretary of State Phil Cook with inquiries as to its provisions.Although it has only been a few days since the bill was passed, Secretary Cook says he has received about seven hundred letters regarding the law, while he has had personal visits and telephone calls galore from those who are directly interested in the first state automobile law Georgia ever had.What the Law Provides.
Briefly the important provisions of the law are as follows:

C. F. von HERRMANN,
Section Director.ADVERTISING TALKS
WRITTEN BY WILLIAM C. FREEMAN.The other night my daughter was at the piano playing an accompaniment to my favorite song, which she was singing for me,
when she suddenly stopped and called out to me:"Papa, why don't you apply the scale of music to your advertising talks? You know, there are only seven notes in music—A, B, C, D, E, F, G—and everything in music comes from combining these notes.""That's fine—a splendid suggestion," I replied, and to myself I said, "It is great to be helped out by members of one's family in his work.
I think my household is infected by the advertising germ, all right."THE SEVEN NOTES OF MUSIC! SURE ENOUGH!
What do they not do?
Simple little things, aren't they? Properly manipulated, they can be made to stir every human emotion—they can be made to soothe you, or to thrill you, to make you cry or to make you laugh—or to entertain you.Why did I not ever think of their application to advertising before?This talk will tell you about the ADVERTISING SCALE—SEVEN plain NOTES or PRINCIPLES—which all business houses can learn very easily, and by playing them over and over again, and by making all sorts of combinations, they can furnish to the homes they want to reach medleys or symphonies or grand marches or grand operas, which, businessly translated, means acquiring the confidence of the people, getting them to believe that they will get good merchandise at reliable prices, that they will be treated courteously, and that they can rely on promises made.

Now, the Seven Notes of Advertising are:

A—The right time to start.

B—Start right; that is, BE FRANK.

C—Use plain and clean words.

D—Help your reader with suggestions.

E—KEEP YOUR PRINTED PROMISE ABSOLUTELY.

F—Impress people with the CHARACTER of your store.

G—Never let a doubt arise as to your personal integrity.

As I go along with these stories, I will do some playing on these notes myself, which may be helpful to some merchants who want to advertise right and build a business that everybody will say is being builded right.

Tigress Made Escape.—Consternation reigned at Grant Park Wednesday when it was discovered that Mary the Bengal tigress, had escaped, and was wandering contentedly down the moonlit lanes of the park. To the Voters of Fulton County

Many of you are aware that I announced my candidacy for County Commissioner early in April, independent of any section, faction or special interest, and shall finish without making any alliance with any one except the whole people.

If elected, I promise a clean, businesslike administration, giving special attention to the neglected portions of both city and county.

Representatives of Madrid Call at the State Department. Possible That Some Sort of Compromise May Be Patched Up.

Washington, August 12.—General Sebastian Salinas and Dr. Modesto Barrios, representatives here of the Madrid faction in Nicaragua, had an interview at the state department today with Huntington Wilson, acting secretary of state, and presented a formal representation, which, if accepted, in their opinion, would bring about a settlement of the troubles which have been seething in the Central American republic.

That no arguments which they presented, however, have changed in the least the fixed policy of this government in regard to the Nicaraguan situation was made absolutely plain at the department. Attention was called to the fact that in a settlement of the complicated problem both factions will have to be considered. Out of the representations made by both the Madrid and Estrada factions it may be possible, it was pointed out, to patch some sort of a compromise.

Estrada Has Claims. That the latter faction now more than ever has claims which must be considered was insisted upon by the fact that the revolutionists now hold not only the east coast, but also the province of Chontales in the interior and some territory not far from Managua, the capital.

In their interview today with the acting secretary of state, General Salinas and Dr. Barrios were told, according to a statement issued at the department, of the unsatisfactory treatment lately accorded by Dr. Arias to American citizens in Managua and Matagalpa, and to which the department lately has been obliged to make representations.

A Complex Situation. There were some observations made by Dr. Barrios and Salinas on the present very complicated situation in Nicaragua and it was explained that the department is now, as it always has been, ever ready to hear and consider any communication that either faction might make.

Dr. Barrios and Dr. Salinas will be recognized by the state department as an authorized channel for such unofficial communications as from time to time pass between the department and the Madrid faction in Nicaragua, and that Dr. Coreia was for some time in Washington in a similar capacity and that Dr. Castillo has for many months been here as the channel of communication between the department and the Estrada faction.

SHORTAGE OF CARS APPEARS CERTAIN

Demand Due to Crop Movement.

Public Urged to Make Shipments Early in Season—Roads Requested to Handle Empties Promptly.

Chicago, August 12.—A car shortage appears inevitable, as viewed by the committee on relations between railroads of the American Railway Association. This statement and others of importance to railroads and shippers alike is made in the fortnightly bulletin made public by Chairman Arthur Hale, of the committee, today. According to this bulletin, the present surplus of cars is 105,584, a decrease in two weeks of 29,030. Scattered railroads report shortages and have made some demands on roads with surpluses for assistance. Of the decrease in the surplus, 17,827 are box cars, and 8,126 coal and gondola cars, the remainder miscellaneous.

Sharp Demand for Coal Cars. The demand for box cars is due largely to the beginning of the crop movement, but the surplus decrease is not confined to the grain-producing sections alone, coming, also, from what is known as the eastern and middle groups. A sharpening of the demand for coal cars is noted, and it is calculated that the surplus in this class of cars will have disappeared, by September 1.

The public is urged to make its shipments as much earlier as possible this season, this postponing "to that extent the shortage which now appears inevitable." Railroads are urged to handle empty cars promptly.

Smith, marine corps, got the long range aggregate prize with a possible at 88 at 1,000 yards, and Lieutenant Smith and Sergeant Keough, of Massachusetts, tied at 192 for the highest slow fire aggregate. For the rapid fire prize six possibilities were scored by Lieutenant Dixon, Corporal T. Rolf and Lieutenant Steven, of the United States infantry; Sergeant F. TEDDY TO HEAD N. Y. CONVENTION

Suggestion of Lloyd C. Griscom.

Roosevelt Takes the Matter Under Advisement and Is Inclined to View the Suggestion Favorably—His Speech Will Be Feature.

New York, August 12.—There were reports this afternoon that at the suggestion of Lloyd C. Griscom, chairman of the republican county committee, Theodore Roosevelt has taken under advisement the proposal that he act as temporary chairman of the New York republican state convention, and it is said, is inclined to view the idea favorably. Whether he acts as temporary chairman or not, it is stated, he will go to the convention and will make a speech in which he will talk very frankly about the kind of work that the republican party has to do in order to retain the confidence of the voters.

Elkins Calls On Roosevelt. Senator Stephen B. Elkins, of West Virginia, was one of the first visitors to drop in upon Mr. Roosevelt after the latter's arrival at his editorial offices today. "I hadn't seen Mr. Roosevelt since his return from Africa," said Mr. Elkins as he was going away, "and couldn't miss the chance to call on him when we were in town at the same time."

Senator Elkins said that politics had not been discussed.

Colonel Roosevelt accepted an invitation today to go to Chicago and deliver a address before the Union League Club on next Washington's birthday.

Pinchot Also a Caller. Gifford Pinchot, the former chief forester, stopped at the offices for a moment to tell Colonel Roosevelt he would be in Oyster Bay tomorrow to spend the night.

Colonel Roosevelt had a number of other callers, among whom were ex-Governor Woodruff, of Connecticut; Robert C. Morris, formerly president of the New York republican county committee, and U. T. Halbert, of St. Paul.

BUTLER FOR SMITH IN TWO ELECTIONS

Millard George Terms Journal Denial "Bold Piece of Deception."

Millard George, editor of the Madison Advertiser, is characterized as a bold piece of deception and an absolute falsehood in the report in the Atlanta Journal of Thursday that Colonel E. W. Butler had always been an opponent of Hoke Smith and hence could not change.

The report was originally published that Colonel Butler was for Hoke Smith in 1906 and in 1908, but had changed this year to Governor Brown. This statement was denied by the correspondent of the Atlanta afternoon paper.

In telling of the incident Millard George said: "Immediately upon reading the article in the Journal I called up Colonel Butler and told him of it."

"The statement in the Journal that I have always opposed Hoke Smith is absolutely untrue. I voted for Hoke Smith in 1906 and 1908, but will vote for Joe Brown on the 23d of this month if I live to get to the polls."

"The above is no deception, that is a plain unvarnished fact, and no man can truthfully deny it. Such an attempted deception as this has characterized Hoke Smith's campaign from the very beginning. How true is the old saying 'what a tangible web we weave when we first practice to deceive.'"

Jacquelin Osborne. Jacquelin Osborne, the infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Osborne, died at 9:45 o'clock last night at the residence, 42 Augusta avenue. The funeral services will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon at the residence, with interment at West View.

SLOOP AURORA WINS KING'S CUP

Won by Less Than Minute Time Allowance Over Winsome.

Newport, R. I., August 12.—Cornelius Vanderbilt's sloop Aurora, sailed by W. Butler Duncan, Jr., won the king's cup, the last event of the New York Yacht Club's annual cruise under superintending sailing conditions today. She won by a margin of less than a minute on time allowance, over the sloop Winsome, which, in turn, had about half a minute advantage over the schooner Elmina at the finish. The trophy was the one donated by the late King Edward VII. of England, and out of respect to his memory, the usual justification on the flag at the conclusion of the cruise, was omitted tonight.

The race was one of 25½ miles over a triangular course, with the start of Borton Reef lightship.

According to statistics quoted at Engineering, there are in the world's 8,600,000 telephones, and the lines have an aggregate length of about 12,600,000 miles.

He has received a letter to this effect. Edwards declares that he is used to having his life threatened and that the result of efforts to slay him has been in the other man finally believing he was the one in danger.

O. B. Stevens Has Taken Good Care of the Railroads

Who could have thought that Obadiah Stevens would have the "gall" to seek reelection as a member of the railroad commission? Is there no such thing as giving a man enough? Does Uncle Ob think that he ought to be fed out of the public crib the balance of his life? He has been in office nearly the whole of this generation.

Mr. Obadiah Stevens is quite an old man. He has had his day in court. He is now physically incapable of doing anything more than delivering his vote regularly to the railroads. The territory southward of Atlanta has two railroad commissioners, in the persons of Messrs. Hill and Gray. The modesty of the city of Atlanta is evidenced by the fact that she has two commissioners, Messrs. Candler and Hillyer. It would seem, therefore, that the territory northward of Atlanta is a man's world. Mr. J. A. Perry, of Lawrenceville, Ga., is a man of the highest character, in the full flush of youthful vigor, and is entirely competent to discharge the duties of the position now held by Uncle Obadiah. It is to be hoped that the people will choose Mr. Perry instead of Mr. Stevens.

"Turn about is fair play," Uncle Ob has taken such good care of the railroads during his long tenure of office that the railroads should reward him with some comfortable berth, where the work will be nominal and the salary regular.—Jeffersonian.

LAND SHOW PLAN GATHERS FORCE

Enthusiasm Behind It Is Rapidly Growing.

E. P. Ansley Ready to Lend Every Possible Assistance. Carlos Lynes, Ralph O. Cochran and Thos. Jackson Give It Complete Indorsement.

That The Constitution's idea of a "land-owners' exposition" to be held here in the fall has "taken," has been proven beyond the shadow of a doubt. That the plan is feasible and the project one which will prove of almost incalculable value to the entire state is the opinion expressed on all sides, even by the most conservative.

Local real estate men are daily becoming more enthusiastic over the prospect of holding such a show, many of them voluntarily coming forward with offers of assistance in putting into execution the plan as already outlined. They believe that with the proper publicity, the exposition can be made a matter of almost national importance.

As Edwin Ansley Sees It. "A land exposition will show Georgia's soils and resources, her products and possibilities. Therefore, I favor it," said Edwin P. Ansley.

"I have been studying the state's resources for some time, and The Constitution's development articles have decided me to pay more attention to state development in the future. In the past my work has been largely in and around Atlanta, but the state affords a broader field and he who helps to build up the state-at-large helps his city. I have watched a good many enter this broad field, but conditions have never before been quite so favorable as they are today. The pioneers in the work met strong prejudice and ignorance in the north and west. Theirs was missionary and educational work and while it was not very profitable to them, they completely changed the attitude of northern homeseekers toward the south.

"I assume that a number of boards of trade and chambers of commerce will take hold of exhibits from their counties for the proposed exposition. Every commercial organization has the nucleus of an exhibit representing the activities and possibilities of its town and the surrounding country. These displays can be readily supplemented.

Will Lend Assistance. "I will be very glad to look after the exhibits of individuals who cannot be present at the show. I will have their samples of soil, timber, minerals, fruits or other farm products, specimens of manufactures, photos and everything of that kind properly displayed.

"We ought to get a great many homeseekers and investors to come here to see the displays. The exposition can be made a big thing, if time is taken to work it up properly. The railways will be glad to advertise the project extensively, and to give us special rates. They give homeseekers rates now, one fare for the round trip twice a month. These tickets are good for twenty-five days. We ought to be able to bring down a great many people from the north and from adjoining states. No doubt all the real estate men over the state will co-operate in securing exhibits and in bringing purchasers to see the displays.

"I will do anything I can to help the enterprise along and congratulate The Constitution on having suggested it."

Must Appeal to Every Georgian. "The exposition would unquestionably mean much to Atlanta," said Carlos Lynes, of Thomson & Lynes, "but the entire state from one end to the other would reap the most benefit. The benefits this city would derive would be indirect. But taken as a whole, the idea is one that must appeal not only to every Atlantian, but to every Georgian who has the advancement of his state at heart.

"There is so much to recommend the idea to the public at large that the wonder is some such movement has not started before this. Now that the idea has been brought forward, anyone can think of scores of reasons why we should have the 'exposition.' As for myself personally and the firm of which I am a member, put us down for the movement from first to last, and willing to do anything in our power to make it the grand success which it deserves to be and which it will be if properly managed."

What We Have Been Seeking. "The Constitution's plan is just the thing hundreds of Georgians have been seeking for a long time—some feasible plan of letting the out-of-state buyers know what Georgia has to offer to homeseekers and buyers," said Ralph O. Cochran, president of the Atlanta Real Estate Men's Association. "The thought is a most happy one, the suggestion most timely. Advertisement is what the state needs most today, and this is unquestionably the surest, simplest and most practical method yet devised.

"The results of such an 'exposition' would be all but inconceivable, as I see it. There is no way to estimate just how wide the scope of influence such a meeting would exert, would extend. As I see it, the opportunity is one that we cannot afford to neglect."

A Great Step Forward. "The day that sees The Constitution's idea materialize into a great meeting here will mark one of the state's greatest strides in her forward march to that commercial prowess which rightly belongs to her," said Thomas Jackson. "That day will mark a new era in Georgia's development. The importance of such an 'exposition' it would be impossible to over-estimate.

"It would bring into the state thousands of dollars from the outside, but of still more importance, it would bring hundreds of just the sort of citizens that we most need. Anything that will do either or both for the state is well worth while. Let's have the 'exposition' at all costs."

Hurt in Runaway.

Tallapoosa, Ga., August 12.—(Special.)—Mrs. J. T. Gibson, wife of the well-known Baptist minister, while driving this afternoon about 6 o'clock, was seriously injured. The horse became frightened, running away and turning the carriage over on her, breaking her shoulder and arm. She was taken to the residence of J. A. Jones, and Dr. C. W. Dowkey was immediately called.

REMARKABLE RECORD MADE BY CLARKE COUNTY ORDINARY

Athens, Ga., August 12.—(Special.)—

For the first time in nearly nine years the ordinary of another pen besides that of Judge S. B. Wingfield will be pressed this week on the books of record in the office of the ordinary of Clarke county if Mr. Henry Carlton assists the judge, as it has been agreed, for a day or two, while the judge takes a well earned rest. Judge Wingfield has been ordinary of the county since the first of 1901. In that time he has never taken but one vacation—then of a week, to visit his daughter at Edgewood, near Atlanta. With that exception he has been in the office every day. For some weeks he has had a severe cold and believes that a day or two of rest and treatment will renew the energy which has characterized his manner and his work for many years.

Judge Wingfield is a remarkable man. In youth he was reared in plenty and till the war knew nothing of privation. He, after the war, married and thirteen children blessed the union—a half dozen sons and one more than that number of daughters. There are five of the sons and four of the daughters still living—all but one daughter living in Athens, and all of that number, save one, within call of their father's house. There have been forty-four grandchildren in the family—twenty-eight grandsons and sixteen grand-daughters.

Judge Wingfield is now nearly 73 years old, and only a few months ago in a playful wrestle with a 200-pound man he threw him down. His many friends are hoping that his indisposition will be of short duration.

MATERIAL MAN PROTECTED BY BILL OF ALEXANDER

One of the most important bills passed by the legislature was the bill introduced by Harry Alexander, of Fulton, for the protection of persons furnishing material and labor for the construction of public buildings.

Under the law as it now stands when a contractor purchases material for use in a building which is not a public building, the person or firm furnishing the material has a lien on the building to secure the material, and if the contractor does not pay the debt the material man may sell the building and get his money. The material man has no such lien on a public building.

The bill introduced by Mr. Alexander, and which will become a law as soon as it is signed by the governor, provides that when a contractor purchases material for use in a public building he shall give a bond to guarantee payment for the material. Material men all over the state were interested in Mr. Alexander's bill and that was one of the important planks in the platform on which he was elected to the legislature from this county.

Atlantic City, N. J., August 12.—Joseph Vaughan, Charles Quinn and Jacob Sears, three residents of McKee City, near here, charged with being implicated in tarring and feathering feathering Frank Richert, a farmer, living near Cardiff, because of his alleged attentions to a widow, were arraigned before Magistrate Jagmety here today and held in $2,000 bail each on a charge of atrocious assault and battery.

Sichert, who is over sixty years of age, described how he was dragged from his wagon, loaded with garden truck, which he was taking to Atlantic City, and tied so tightly that the ropes cut in his flesh.

He told how he had been dragged to the McKee City school house, thrown into the cellar, threatened with death, finally stripped of his clothes, tarred and feathered, tied up to a post near the railroad station and left for three hours.

ELBERT ARLISS CHARGED WITH WOMAN'S DEATH

Huntington, W. Va., August 12.—This city is greatly excited as the result of disclosures since the finding of the body of Mrs. Henry Hall, wife of a local merchant, in the Ohio river at Callettsburg, Ky., yesterday, and the arrest of Elbert A. Arliss, a former attendant at the West Virginia asylum, which was near the Hall store.

The body of Mrs. Hall was been brought here and the police claim to have secured damaging admissions from Arliss. They have recovered $200 from a hiding place in Arliss' home.

CONSTITUTION PUBLISHING CO.

ATLANTA, GA., August 13, 1910.

And still the enthusiasm grows for a great land exposition this fall.

"Not guilty," cries Aldrich, and then proceeds to explain, not deny.

With those new lights, Atlanta at night will look like a real live metropolis.

The only persons in Georgia not enthusiastic over good roads are the convicts.

The names of the promoters of the Atlanta Greek Club certainly sound that way.

Those haughty Pelicans are due to lose feathers when they next meet the rejuvenated Crackers.

Anti-prohibs have the laugh on the "dry" Virginia town that caved in when its new 800-foot well collapsed.

That New Orleans judge who refused to let a woman's club come into court evidently isn't a married man.

The similarity of names of some Georgia candidates is causing the bottom to drop out of many a heated dispute.

Over 5,000 delegates are expected to the convention in Atlanta next spring of the Southern Commercial Congress.

The auspicious opening of the series of thirty concerts at the Auditorium presages a brilliant success for the experiment.

Was it for fear that they would break the law themselves that the Georgia legislature failed to bar prize fighting in the state?

Jack Barrymore's first attack of stage fright came when he asked for a marriage license. He should have conferred with Nat Goodwin.

Government experts are using chemical poisons and blue smoke to drive away grasshoppers in Bibb county. This before August 23.

The action of the Eighth District Masons of Georgia in condemning Russia's treatment of the Jews will probably be emulated all over the country.

Another sure indication of the golden times of peace and prosperity that have settled over the farmers of Georgia is the unprecedentedly large number of county fairs now planned for Georgia during the fall months.

Probably the most gratifying feature of these announcements, outside of their frequency, is the fact that they are not confined to any single section of the state, but come from the fertile hills of the northern section of the state as well as from those south Georgia counties the richness of whose soils have made them famous.

Not only are these fairs more numerous than ever before, but promise to be on an elaborate scale never before attempted. The prizes announced are so liberal that the winning of a first prize will this year mean a good deal more to a farmer than merely the honor of being a better agriculturist than his neighbors.

Another striking proof of the fact that Georgia is what she proudly claims to be—the Empire State of the South.

"FROM BLUE GRASS TO ORANGE."

Adding his testimony to that of numerous other Georgians in favor of the "land owners' exposition," suggested by The Constitution, George D. Lowe, editor of The Garage, presents in wonderfully compact compass, as follows, reasons for the proposed display and the national handicap enjoyed by Georgia:

Georgia stretches from blue grass to orange; there are opportunities for every class of specialty farmer and room for thousands more general farmers between these limits. New blood and new money will work wonders through their leaving of the whole lump. A land show for Georgia will show alfalfa land, blue grass land, wheat land, cotton land, apple land, pecan land, peach land, truck land, tobacco land, corn land, hay land, hog land and cow land, and the world is land hungry.

"Georgia stretches from blue grass to orange."

That is a good enough phrase for the men seeking to exploit our advantages to the nation to adopt wholesale.

It expresses the wonderful versatility that enables this commonwealth to suit any class of farmer, any character of domestic immigrant, who may be seeking to better his fortune.

The central idea of the land owners' exposition is to make it serve as middleman between the land owner with property to sell and the "consumer" who wishes to buy land.

Approved by President Paxton, of the Chamber of Commerce; by Mayor Maddox, by numerous prominent business men of Atlanta and the state, the project should appeal to the practical business instincts of the people of Georgia.

THE ACHIEVEMENT OF GAYNOR.

The attempted assassination of Mayor Gaynor has accomplished what it generally requires the democratic harshness of death to achieve; the revelation of the esteem in which he is universally held by partisans whose lips would have in all likelihood continued sealed had it not been for the bullet of Gallagher.

So that, on his bed in the Hoboken hospital, he can have the unusual pleasure of reading the estimate placed upon his deeds and policies by men and papers that, at the outset of his candidacy and officeholding, were most bitter in their denunciations of his temperamental and official unsuitness.

For instance, The New York Sun candidly remarks, "Those who, like us, doubted the wisdom of his election, bear hearty testimony to the superior wisdom of the people and to his high qualities, and trust that he will live to continue his admirable public service and, incidentally, to know by a happier than posthumous fame how he has earned the good will of his fellow-citizens."

And The New York Tribune, "Those who sincerely opposed him as a candidate are deeply solicitous today and most earnest in their prayers for his recovery."

A particularly discerning comment is that of The New York Times, when it says, "It is a peculiar testimony to the essential strength, independence and integrity of his nature that, while he has gained the respect of those who opposed his election, he has literally created a civic sentiment, a standard of public obligation, in his own party to which its managers were unsympathetic, but which is so strong that politics is really a different thing from what it has ever been, or without him could have been."

And from the republican New York Press: "Mr. Gaynor was doing for this city what no mayor before him had ever done, what an astonishingly few of New York's mayors have ever tried to do. Men who had fought his election with all the power at their command were paying him large tribute."

The New York World is equally emphatic in its remark that "The attempt upon the life of Mayor Gaynor is another startling reminder of the dangers of courageous public service."

In seven short months, and with the simple qualities of honesty, courage and directness, this man, disarmed hostile criticism and forced tribute from his most inveterate enemies.

The achievement points a powerful lesson in politics and to politicians.

THE FARMER AND THE "PISTOL-TOTER."

Here is a strong and logical appeal to the farmers of Georgia, from The Farmers' Union News, to make their attitude toward pistol-toting so unmistakable as to aid in the crushing of that evil in the rural districts:

The Georgia farmers should take a hand in demanding the enforcement of the law in reference to "pistol-toting." There is absolutely no excuse for carrying a pistol in this enlightened age and in countries where people claim to be civilized. The carrying of a pistol is an evidence of coarseness and should not be indulged in by people who consider themselves honorable and respectable and belonging to the best class of citizenship. Some boys carry a pistol because they think it is smart, but they should know that it denotes a degree of idleness and barbarism. The lower type of citizens think of destroying life, the higher types of preserving it, whether it be that of man, bird or beast. The man who depends on brute force, and for that reason carries a pistol, admits his mental weakness. The man with a fine mind will not stoop to the level of the brute. Let the farmers everywhere take hold and help to stop this nefarious practice so prevalent among our citizens. Educate them to look upon life as too sacred to be ended, or harmed, by the pulling of a trigger and the flash of a pistol in some moment of uncontrolled anger.

There can be no question that if the farmers of this state take a determined stand in their respective counties, we shall see a speedy diminution of a practice that multiplies murders and casts discredit upon the entire commonwealth.

It is in the country that pistol-toting frequently takes a large toll of life and happiness.

In the cities, arrangements for policing and the enforcement of the law necessarily adapt themselves more uniformly to the exigencies of the situation.

But where, as is the case with the rural districts, isolation and sparse settlement make it difficult to enforce law with regularity, the pistol-toter is able to ply his deadly vocation with fewer chances of detection and punishment.

The farmers of Georgia are a singularly law-abiding people. Conservative, thoughtful, demanding much of their officials, they can, by resolute action, do much to lessen this shadow upon the state.

THE INDISPENSABILITY OF THE COLONEL.

The Des Moines Register and Leader comments that at this time it seems absolutely impossible to "lose Theodore," and proceeds forthwith to congratulate the country upon that fact.

We are in accordance with The Register and Leader.

Our contemporary bases its interest in and fidelity to the colonel on the ground that he is "intensely human" and, therefore, "intensely interesting to other humans."

That is true, but the wellsprings of his strength and popularity lie far deeper.

To Roosevelt must go much of the credit for the clean, healing breeze now blowing through the public affairs of America, purifying things and wakening the once sluggish popular conscience to a proper sense of its duties in the premises.

We are told, for instance, that insurgency, as that term is generally understood, is a permanent and not a temporary manifestation, and that progress must henceforth reckon with the spirit underlying its inception and development.

Such being the case, and few thoughtful Americans will care to dispute it, who is today most responsible for the forward tide of insurgent sentiment throughout the nation?

Again—the answer seems to be Roosevelt.

Whether or not the average American agrees in toto with the attitudes and contentions of the colonel, there can be little question that his vigor and persistence paved the way for the militant rejection of old schisms under the name of "party loyalty," now playing the deuce with the two wings of his own organization.

All this may be said with absolute accuracy without in any way subscribing to the near-idolatry with which the extremists view the former executive. He has his faults and, like his personality, they are aggressive and unmistakable.

By and large, however, and whether or not he is to play an immediate official role in American politics, his is an arresting influence for public vigilance and civic righteousness, the value of which to a democratic government it is difficult to estimate.

COUNCIL AND THE "WHITE WAY."

The plan to make permanent a "White Way" for Atlanta, stretching from the Terminal Station to Whitehall and thence along Whitehall to Peachtree as far as Ellis street, now depends mainly upon the city council.

Property owners have displayed the characteristic Atlanta spirit of cooperation and liberality in agreeing to stand their share of expense.

If the city will agree to maintain the lights, after they are in place, the municipality will be assured another asset sure to increase her national prestige.

It is especially desirable that action be taken so that the improvement may be installed before the annual meeting here next month of the Sovereign Grand Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Representations to that effect are already being made to council. It is to be hoped the members will see their way clear to acquiesce in the project.

STATE PRESS ON GOVERNOR'S RACE

August 23 Near.

(From The Calhoun News.)

The noted 23d is near at hand.

Race Still Quiet.

(From The Powder Springs Pioneer.)

The race for the governorship is still quiet.

Little Politics, Lots of Business.

(From The Thomaston Times.)

Mighty little politics and lots of business is what we want.

Predicts Freeze on August 23.

(From The Whigham News.)

We look for a severe freeze about August 23 when the hot politics of Georgia begins to cool down.

No Street Corner Talk.

(From The Greensboro Herald-Journal.)

We don't hear many street corner discussions on the gubernatorial campaign. It is well.

Skiddoo Day.

(From The Greensboro Herald-Journal.)

An auspicious date was picked out for the election, "23." Some will feel the "skiddoo" day.

One Reason Why.

(From The Perry Home Journal.)

The Governor Brown has not done the things that Hoke Smith wanted done is one of the strongest reasons why the people are going to give him another term by an increased majority.

A Clean Sweep.

(From The Statesboro News.)

Hoke Smith is making a clean sweep from one end of the state to the other. Everybody you see, who has been anywhere, tells the same tale. It must be so.

Both Eyes Shut.

(From The Statesboro News.)

The Joe Brown managers have put out a card stating that they expect to carry every county in the state. Why, they are walking straight toward the precipice with both eyes shut.

All Over After August 23.

(From The Wrightsville Chronicle.)

"Progressive democracy" is getting a little tiresome to the Joe Brown people at all; but it will be a thing of the past after August 23.

Claims Everything Except Prohibition.

(From The LaGrange Graphic.)

Hoke Smith has claimed for his administration everything that has insured to the benefit of the people except prohibition. He and his friends begin their claims by claiming to have reduced passenger rates, which every well-informed man knows was accomplished by the Terrell administration and that, too, without any bluff and bluster.

Deprecates Napping.

(From The Newnan Herald.)

We fully agree with The Cedarhurst Standard in deprecating the spirit exhibited by Governor Brown's enemies in criticising his every official act for no other purpose than the attainment of a doubtful political advantage in the pending campaign. We think, with The Standard, that this continual nagging of Governor Brown, and the persistent efforts that are being made to belittle his administration, are both unjust and ungenerous.

Plain, Concise, Strong.

(From The Perry Home Journal.)

The anticipated political address of Governor Joseph M. Brown to the people of Georgia was given out last Monday, and published by the morning papers Tuesday morning.

As is his habit, he considered his subject carefully and wrote forcefully, making plain, concise and strong every sentence.

With reference to each point upon which his administration has been attacked, he successfully refuted the charges, upholding his administration at every point, especially with reference to payment of teachers, the railroad commission, the registration law, and his attitude toward the working people.

The "Child of Temperance."

(From The LaGrange Graphic.)

Prohibition was conceived and born during Mr. Smith's administration. During his administration it received its first growth. Gentle reader, in Mr. Smith, Rube Arnold or any other spokesman of the Smith forces claiming kinship with this child of temperance? Look through their campaign literature, read their speeches and tell us if you can find the word "prohibition." Then look around you at the "near" prohibitionists. The right title to these reforms are not an issue in this contest. But we would dislike to be the son who lives in a family that has adopted children therein; the adopted children receiving honorable mention and the paternal blood no mention at all. Why this estrangement?

Wants Every Man to Have a Job.

(From The Gainesville News.)

The farmers of Georgia and the working people of the state who elected Governor Brown must react the present governor if they wish a continuation of the prosperous times and the era of good feeling and confidence now prevailing.

The people of Georgia, especially the great mass of what is termed the "common people," who are the bulwark and safety of every commonwealth, must go to the polls on the 23d and by their ballots continue Governor Brown in the executive office of the state two years more. He does not seek to usurp the powers of every officer in the state, and his office remains unlocked and open to every citizen. No one stands guard at the door, nor is there an electric lock to be pried open to gain admission to his office. The quiet, unassuming, unostentatious occupant of the governor's office is always willing at all times to meet and give a welcome to every citizen of Georgia, however humble he may be.

Governor Brown does not flaunt the flag of aggrandizement in the face of capital invested in the industries and enterprises in this state, nor does he twirl a "big stick" in the face of foreign money seeking investment in Georgia.

All of this talk of "reactionaries" in Georgia is purely and simply a catchphrase to deceive the voters of the state.

PATTERSON OFFERS TO WAIVE NOMINATION

And to Test Choice of Tennessee Democracy in Primary Election.

Nashville, Tenn., August 12.—Among the few politicians in the city today there has been more or less gossip concerning the effect of the address issued by Governor Patterson offering to waive the gubernatorial nomination and to test the choice of the entire democracy of the state in a primary election.

With the administration democrats the opinion is expressed that the governor's statement is in line with his previous "candid, fearless statements;" that it places him in an unassailable position; that the card shows the governor's unselfish and patriotic desire to perpetuate democratic control in Tennessee and to prevent, if possible, the entire disruption of the party.

The anti-administration democrats are treating the governor's declaration with apparent indifference.

REV. WHITE EXONERATED BY CHURCH COMMITTEE

The stewards of the Cosmopolitan A. M. E. church, colored, have issued a signed statement relative to certain charges brought by the expelled member, J. H. Harper, against the pastor, F. A. White, and one of the members, Lisle E. Smith.

In this statement it is set out that White was arraigned and tried on the allegations of Harper at the instigation of C. S. Smith, a bishop. The investigation was made by Rev. Branch, presiding elder, and a committee of laymen. Harper failed to sustain his charges, it is stated, and White was exonerated at the hands of the committee.

Since that time, it is said, a number of false reports as to division among the members and officers of the church have been circulated. All reports to this effect are false, it is said, as both the congregation and the officers of the church are satisfied of the pastor's innocence of the charges made.

The statement is signed by the full board of stewards of the church.

Dr. Williams Resigns.

(From The Macon News.)

Dr. Howard J. Williams, for a number of years a member of the medical board of the Macon hospital, has resigned his place, giving as a reason the fact that outside work has become too pressing upon him for him to do his duty toward the place. He performed the first operation in the Macon hospital and is at present chairman of the city board of health.

WIDOW OF TWO VETERANS WANTS PENSION FOR EACH

Athens, Ga., August 12.—(Special.)—Judge Wingfield, ordinary of Clarke county, had an application yesterday from one good lady of this county for two pensions. Under the new pension law widows of soldiers who are worth not more than $1,500 in cash or property, and who were married before the 1st of January, 1870, are now entitled to receive $60 per annum in addition to the pensions received by the other classes of pensioners whose pensions are conditioned exactly as formerly. One good lady has applied to the ordinary for blanks to make out her claim for a pension—two pensions, in fact. She wants two sets of blanks. "You don't expect to get two pensions?" asked the judge. "Of course I do," she replied in all candor. She explained that she had had two husbands and that they were both Confederate soldiers, and have one too," she said. One she married "before the war." He went to the front and was killed in battle. The other, a returned follower of Lee and Jackson, she married prior to 1870. For this condition of facts, with the other married life, she believed that she would be entitled under the new law to two pensions.

Gossip at the Capitol

Fine Crop at the State Farm.

According to a report received yesterday by Chairman G. R. Hutchens, of the prison commission, from Superintendent Burke, of the state farm at Milledgeville, the crop at the farm is better this season than it has been in years.

Chairman Hutchens states that already 2,000 bushels of wheat have been threshed, which is a splendid showing in view of the fact that the farm has never grown wheat before. The farm is raising more corn this year than it has ever raised before, and although less cotton was planted, the crop will be as large as it was last year. The food crops are all in splendid condition.

General Wright Takes Vacation.

For the third time during his term of service of nearly thirty-one years, Comptroller General William A. Wright will take a week's vacation, beginning today. The comptroller will be absent several days at Indian Springs.

General Wright has stayed closer to his office than any other official of the state. He likes vacations just as well as any other man, but when he leaves the office for any length of time the work accumulates so rapidly that nothing but a strong constitution staves off nervous prostration when trying to catch up.

In discussing his vacations Friday morning General Wright remarked rather facetiously that one of them was taken when he was laid up in bed several weeks with a carbuncle.

Warrants for Schools.

Governor Brown yesterday drew his warrant for $29,735, which is to be distributed among the counties of DeKalb, Dodge, Franklin, Henry, Twiggs and Dawson, to be used in the payment of teachers.

Hutchens Will Not Speak.

G. R. Hutchens, chairman of the prison commission and candidate for reelection as a member of the commission, will make no speeches during the campaign. Up to date the chairman has made no speeches in the interest of his candidacy and he stated yesterday that he would be unable to do so, as the duties of the office will keep him at the capitol until after the election.

Hudson On Vacation.

Thomas G. Hudson, commissioner of agriculture, is taking his vacation and will spend the greater part of it at his home in Americus. Mr. Hudson will return to his office the latter part of the month.

Rate Clerk Webster Ill.

J. P. Webster, rate clerk of the railroad commission, who has been at Wrightsville Beach on a vacation, was compelled to return home on account of a threatened attack of typhoid fever. It was stated yesterday that the attack appears not to be so serious as was at first thought.

Reward for Moore.

Governor Brown yesterday offered a reward of $200 for the capture of Spencer Moore, who is charged with killing D. Lindley in Atlanta in July.

Issue of Bonds and Stock.

The railroad commission yesterday issued an order authorizing the Montgomery Company to issue $100,000 worth of capital stock and $12,000 in bonds.

Colonel B. M. Blackburn, one of the executive secretaries in the office of Governor Brown and secretary of the state committee, continues seriously ill at his home on Spring street.

The only bill presented to Governor Brown yesterday for his signature was a local bill to permit Chatham county to establish a prison farm, which he signed.

HARDWICK SPEAKS IN WILKINSON COUNTY

Large Crowd Out to Hear the Candidate for Congress From Tenth.

Gordon, Ga., August 12.—(Special.)—Hon. Thomas W. Hardwick addressed a large audience here at 2:30 o'clock today. While Wilkinson county is conceded to Mr. Hardwick, his speech will increase his majority. He dealt very gently with his opponents, Hens and Evans, but handled Watson with gloves off. He received quite an ovation.

COMMITMENT TRIAL OF MORTON BROTHERS

Resumed at Grays Yesterday. Will Be Concluded Today.

Macon, Ga., August 12.—The commitment trial of Sam, Luther and Tom Morton for the killing of Norris and Steve Etheridge last Friday was resumed before Justice Farrar at Grays today, with the county courthouse crowded with witnesses and the friends of both families. Sheriff Brock had twenty deputies on duty. There was no disorder. The hearing will probably be concluded tomorrow.

WAYCROSS MAN SHOT WHILE IN RESTAURANT

Gene Wiggins Fired On by L. L. Pitts—Self-Defense the Cause.

Waycross, Ga., August 12.—(Special.)—Gene Wiggins was shot by L. L. Pitts in a restaurant here this afternoon at 8 o'clock. Wiggins is in a serious condition, but will probably recover. A report of the trouble after the shooting was done in self-defense. Pitts surrendered to the authorities at once. Wiggins was wounded in the shoulder.

Cotton at Swainsboro.

Swainsboro, Ga., August 12.—(Special.)—The Chamber of Commerce of this city yesterday purchased from William Byrnes, a negro, the first bale of new cotton that has been sold in this county this season, paying there will carry Fulton county again this year and by an increased majority. The membership of the Brown club exceeds 7,000.

FULTON STRONG FOR JOE BROWN

This announcement to the Brown executive committee was received with unbounded enthusiasm. On leaving the meeting various supporters of Mr. Brown said the race in this county was settled beyond a reasonable doubt.

Rally for Brown Tonight.
Tonight a rally of the Second ward supporters for Governor Brown will be held in the breakfast room of the Kimball House, where the county executive committee met last Saturday night. A number of interesting speeches and reports from various districts in Fulton county will be received.

The following other Brown meetings have been announced:
A rally at Marietta, Ga., this morning at 11 o'clock at the residence of Enoch Howard Callaway, of Augusta, will speak.

At Monroe, in Walton county, Judge Frank Sanford, of Swainsboro, will speak on Monday.
Senator Ed Griffith speaks in Carrollton on August 20.

Chatham for Brown.
A letter was received at Brown headquarters Friday from Nye Colquhoun, secretary to Mayor Tiedeman of Savannah, and secretary of the Chatham County Brown Club. He ridiculed the claims of M. J. O'Leary as to Chatham, and said that Governor Brown would go for Brown "almost unanimously."

R. L. Roberts, of Adel, reported the result of a poll taken on a rural free delivery route in Berrien. Out of 151 registered voters, 147 were for Brown and 4 for Smith.

J. H. Sullivan, of Rutledge, Morgan county, said Governor Brown would carry the county by a good majority. He said Asbury district would go two to one for Brown.

S. G. Collier, formerly of Atlanta, but now of Jacksonville, Fla., reached the city Friday, saying he had come back to work for the reelection of Governor Brown. Mr. Collier is a cousin of M. L. Collier, and is also related to Henry L. Collier and John Collier.

Hon. Ed Maddox, chairman of the State League of Brown Clubs, said reports were received yesterday from forty-five counties in the state, and the news was uniformly encouraging. He made the prediction that Governor Brown now stood an excellent chance in Elbert county, and that the Brown men were making plans to capture Franklin and Hart; and that the governor's supporters in Gordon county felt that the situation there was growing better. He said all of these have formerly been considered Smith counties, the reports were considered most significant of the trend of the state.

J. L. Causey, of Irwin, wrote that he was the father of seventeen children and a straight-out Brown man. "I have never been for Hoke Smith and I never will be," he wrote. "I am satisfied many Smith men in this section are changing, and although Smith carried the county before, I think it will go for Little Joe this time. He is the governor of the poor people as well as the rich people."

John W. Evans, of Franklin, Ga., wrote that he liked the way Governor Brown was staying in the office and being governor. He said Hoke Smith would have done well to follow the same course to years ago, but instead, "went wild, and went over the state making stump speeches. Governor Brown is too busy to make stump speeches, as Governor Smith should have been."

FALL CORN SHOW SURE TO BE HELD

Several Hundred Entries Are Expected.

Approximately $5,000 in Prizes Will Be Offered—Members of the Chamber of Commerce Committee Enthusiastic Over the Project.

That Atlanta is to have a corn show in the fall is assured. That it will be an unqualified success seems equally certain. Approximately $5,000 in prizes will be offered, and it is expected that these prizes will be sufficient to tempt entries in great numbers from all sections of the state. The date on which the show is to be held has not yet been fixed.

Several members of the chamber of commerce committee on agriculture met at the chamber rooms yesterday morning for the purpose of discussing the corn show. With them met a number of gentlemen from different sections of the state who were returning from the State Agricultural Association meeting in Athens. At this meeting it was decided that the plan to hold a corn show here late in the fall was not only practicable, but most desirable. The chamber members had also received much encouragement while in Athens.

As a result, it was definitely decided at this meeting that the show will be held. It is expected that there will be several hundred entries, and from the words of encouragement already received from all parts of the state, the exhibits promise to be as fine as any the south has ever seen.

A letter from Thomas A. Early, of the State Agricultural college at Athens, was read. Mr. Early has in charge the boys' corn contest in which there will be more than 300 entries at the state fair to be held in Macon in the fall. Mr. Early believes that most of the contestants will also enter the Atlanta show. Special prizes for the boys' entries will be provided.

There will be two sets of prizes given at the state fair. One will be for quality, the other for quantity. There will be a grand prize for quality and quantity for the state-at-large. There will be second and third prizes in these classes also. In addition, there will be prizes for quality and quantity for each of the eleven congressional districts in the state.

Enthusiasm over the project ran high at the meeting, and several present volunteered substantial sums as a glimmer on the premium lists. It is believed that the railroads will take a lively interest in the matter, as will numbers of fertilizer, farming implement and other manufacturing companies. The prizes, it is believed, will not all be cash, farming implements and fertilizers making up a portion of each prize list.

On the whole, the members of the agricultural committee feel that they have every reason to believe that the proposed show will be an unqualified success, and will prove to be one of the most interesting gatherings of its kind ever held in the south.

CHALLENGE TO BRAZIER ISSUED BY T. L. FARLEY

The Constitution has received the following resolution:
Editor: Constitution. In this morning's Constitution I noticed a statement purporting to have come from my friend, E. W. Brazier, of Monroe county, Georgia, to the effect that he would give $5 for every Hoke Smith man found within 3 miles of his home. I hereby agree to accept his proposition, and will give Mr. Brazier $7 for every Joe Brown man found within a radius of 3 miles of his home. If he will agree to give me $5 for every Hoke Smith man found there, and, further, I hereby agree to give Mr. Brazier $100 if he will accept my proposition.

METHODIST CONFERENCE ON EDUCATION CLOSES

Commission Is Authorized to Adopt Plan of Standards for Colleges.

Chattanooga, Tenn., August 12.—The educational conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, composed of leading college presidents and faculty members of the southern states, which has been in session on Lookout mountain for several days, completed its work Friday morning and adjourned.

The commission was authorized by the conference to prepare a plan of educational standards. The work consisted in revising the plan of the last quadrennium, but very little change was made beyond the presentation of method for more effective educational degree work by the universities and colleges.

"There are," responded the ancient fisherman, "when the hotels fill up."

voted to the discrediting of the Fulton County Joe Brown Club two years ago. And it was not admitted until the votes had been put in the box and counted, that the Brown Club was a real bona fide organization.

"It will be remembered that the organization voted to discontinue its membership in the Brown Club, which has a membership now of more than 7,000, and is growing each day. Claims of various kinds have been made by our friends, the opposition, as to how this organization has been perfected.

"It gives me great pleasure to say, as a member of the executive committee in this county, that more than 2,000 citizens of their own motion have come into headquarters and signed club cards, and in addition to state that 'we have received more than 500 members to date.' The opposition, and returned to us with the name of their candidate struck out and the name of Governor Joseph M. Brown substituted.

ACCUSE LEWIS OF MEDDLING

President Mine Workers Severely Arraigned.

Frank Feehan Declares That Million Dollars Spent in Nova Scotia Was Misappropriated. He Deals a Blow at the Organizers.

Indianapolis, Ind., August 12.—An arraignment of President Thomas L. Lewis, the international organizers and the executive board of the United Mine Workers, and a complaint of the disbursement of the funds by Frank Feehan, president of the Pittsburgh district miners, occupied most of the afternoon session of the national convention of Mine Workers today.

Feehan declared Pennsylvania should make the battle ground of the organization and the million dollars spent in the Nova Scotia strike was misappropriated. He accused Lewis of meddling in the affairs of Illinois and causing the strike, which he said should be indorsed. He stated that the organizers did more harm than good, that they should be discharged and their pay given to the strikers.

Attitude Toward Strikes.
In the roll call on the expression of the conditions of the local and their attitude on continuing the strike in the various sections, only six districts, those of West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Ohio, were heard from. The majority of the delegates reported that their locals favor continuing the strikes and were willing to continue the 25-cent assessment or would increase it to $1 per week, if necessary.

A few, however, declared their inability to meet a larger assessment and some reported their local could not meet the present demand.

Following a plea for harmony by Delegate Wheatley, of Ohio, who declared that the miners were tired of the accounts of the squabbles in the ranks of the Mine Workers with glee, the convention adjourned until 9:30 o'clock tomorrow.

POLICE REFUSE TO AID THE STRIKE BREAKERS

he did not favor the plan. Within a few hours his change of policy became known to the police, and during the afternoon there was widespread dissatisfaction in the department. This reached a culmination at roll call this morning, when the mayor began to make assignments, and those in rebellion stepped out of the ranks.

There was little ill feeling expressed, although one policeman took off his coat and asked the mayor to do it and then he went to work.

Reasons for Rebellion.
As reasons for their rebellion the officers did not advance any. Some said they had been warned by grocers and butchers that if they rode on cars they would be refused provisions. Others said they had belonged to unions, and others that they might wish to join at some future time.

After being told that if they refused to obey the new orders they would be dismissed, two officers who had at first rebelled stepped back into line with the regulars.

The mayor said later that he had enough officers to man the fifty cars which the company expected to operate tonight.

Persistent Rioting.
There was persistent rioting tonight in connection with the street car strike. The mutiny in the police department, due to the refusal of one-fourth of the night force to ride on cars, as Mayor Marshall ordered, reduced the number so that all cars could not be so manned. Stone-throwers lay in wait for cars without guards and pelted the crews unmercifully. A score of carmen were injured during the early evening, none seriously.

The stone-throwing was not limited to the unprotected cars, as many having policemen were attacked. In some such instances arrests were made. Arrests of stone-throwers thus effected were practically the first out of several hundred instances of stone-throwing reported on recent evenings.

Patrolman Charles Snyder was hit on the head by a rock and badly injured.

The police are searching the town tonight for John F. Brady, leader of the imported car crews who has been managing them by traveling about the city in an automobile. He will be charged, the police say, with discharging firearms from his machine.

ALFONSO DEFIES HEAD OF CHURCH

this week, and the omission is regarded as significant. To be sure, postponements of these receptions are frequent during the summer months, but in view of the gravity of the situation with Spain, it would appear that the royal secretary had deliberately delayed another meeting with Marquis de Gonzales, counselor to the French embassy at the vatican, rather than afford the marquis an opportunity to show his friendliness as he did last Tuesday when he attended high mass celebrated in honor of the anniversary of the coronation of Pius X.

Whether the Spanish counsellor would have attended the reception today was a matter sufficiently in doubt to excite keen interest. Cardinal Merry del Val came to Rome last night to participate in the work of one of the congregations, but later returned to his villa on Monte Mario, having notified the diplomats that today's reception would be abandoned.

Alfonso Flings Defiance.

Paris, August 12.—Les Nouvelles today says it is authorized to deny the statement of The Madrid Epoca that Premier Briand strongly advised King Alfonso against a rupture with Rome, and blamed the severance of diplomatic relations between France and the holy see to the clumsiness of the vatican.

The paper says, further, that King Alfonso during the interview with Premier Briand talked frankly about the situation, and that the French statesman in energetic terms that he did not propose to obey the injunction of the vatican, to tolerate the threats of Pius X or to allow the vatican to mix in Spanish politics.

Les Nouvelles adds:
"Mr. Briand's experience enabled him to offer sage advice to the young monarch, warning his majesty to proceed diplomatically."

Demand Prosecution of Cure.
Madrid, August 12.—El Liberal in its issue today, demands the prosecution of the cure of Cuenca, capital of the province of Cuenca, for exhorting the soldiers to obey the pope rather than the government.

The bishop of Tuy, who in 1906 attacked Count Romanones, then minister of justice, for the government measures with regard to civil marriages, today telegraphed an indignant protest to Senor Canalejas against the attitude taken by the premier concerning the vatican.

Movement Started by Rich Carlists.
Paris, August 12.—The Paris Temps today prints a long interview with Jose Canalejas V. Mendes, the Spanish premier, covering the recent events which culminated in the severance of diplomatic relations between the Spanish government and the holy see, as well as his program, which the paper says is the premier's dictum.

Premier Canalejas declares that the movement in the north of Spain is directed by rich Carlists, "who are in vanguard, separatists and enemies of the remainder of the country and integralists, intransigent Catholics whose only program is the reign of Jesus Christ."

Spending Money Lavishly.
The prime minister affirms that he possesses knowledge that the committee behind the movement spent 400,000 pesetas ($80,000) in giving the manifestants of July 10 meal tickets, besides their railroad fare. After the failure of the manifestation, Senor Canalejas says, the agitators organized juntas, "of which—and I announce this publicly for the first time—village priests are the leaders." He says that

BALLOONIST MEETS DEATH IN DROP FROM THE SKIES

New York, August 12.—"Benny" Prince, a young balloonist, met a horrible death this afternoon, at the close of the aviation meet at Asbury Park, N. J. In making a double parachute drop, the second parachute failed to open and he fell more than 2,000 feet.

As the swaying body neared the ground it struck the limb of an apple tree and the boy's head was transfixed on the limb like an apple on a spit. As it struck the ground the headless body was crushed into an unrecognizable mass.

he officially protested to the bishop of Victoria and to the vatican, but both of them replied that it was none of their concern. He says he will welcome interpellations of the Carlists which will give an opportunity to lay bare the detestable conspiracy against Christianity, the king and the country.

Majority Anti-Clerical.
"There is no religious question to Spain," the premier continues. "It is simply an effort to exploit religious sentiment upon the ground now disproved, that the Spanish majority is clerical. The majority, as was indisputably proved at the elections, is anti-clerical. Most of the municipalities sent addresses approving the government's policy. I have received 150,000 telegrams urging me to continue this policy." Senor Canalejas frankly states that the time has arrived when the question must be solved. If the liberals fail, a popular explosion, he says, is sure to follow.

The premier concludes by saying that he now has the power, desire and purpose to succeed in putting his ideas into practice. "Threats will not deter me," he says. "I am in command, and so long as I have a majority in the cortes and the confidence of the king I shall remain."

SUSSMAN ASKS INJUNCTION AGAINST WIFE'S PARENTS

Sam Sussman, the baker, whose wife, Anna Benjamin Sussman, recently entered suit for divorce against him, has filed, through Attorney Morris Macks, an answer to the suit, asking that his wife's parents be enjoined from interfering with him and his wife in their domestic relations, and says that he loves his wife devotedly despite the fact that he agreed to give her a "ghet," which is the Jewish form of divorce, and which, under the Mosaic law, only the husband can grant.

He said that while he was at work his wife (actuated by the influence of her parents) caused all the furniture in his house to be removed to the home of her parents except that which had been purchased on the installment plan, the latter being returned to the installment people.

He says that in order to obtain the "ghet" his wife had him arrested and incarcerated in the police barracks; and that in order to be free he agreed to give her the "ghet" if she would not ask for alimony and counsel fees in a suit in the courts.

Despite this agreement, he says Mrs. Sussman requested alimony and attorney fees.

But he says he is willing to forgive and forget if his wife will "come to his side, as he knows their love and affection is mutual."

Mr. Sussman has already caused his attorney to draw up a suit for $25,000 damages, charging his "parents-in-law" with alienating his wife's affections.

Because her husband frequently resented the harrowing details of the murder of Mrs. Burge by George Burge and threatened to repeat the tragedy on her, Mrs. Berta Mathews has filed suit for divorce against Reuben S. Matthews. She says that her husband kept her in continued terror of her life; that he whipped the children excessively and constantly intimidated her to prevent her leaving him.

She asks for total divorce, alimony and the custody of her children.

Charging habitual intoxication, Mrs. M. L. Smith has filed suit for divorce against Frank L. Smith.

Next Tuesday, the 16th, is return day for the September term of the city and superior courts.

Mrs. M. H. Whitner has filed suit for divorce against R. H. Whitner, alleging desertion.

Judge J. T. Pendleton is in Fairburn, Ga., where he is hearing cases in which Judge L. S. Roan is disqualified. He will be in Atlanta, again today to hear chambers business.

H. H. Yopp has filed suit for $20,000 damages against the Jacob Pharmacy for injuries sustained in falling down the elevator shaft.

He says that he leaned against the elevator door to see if the elevator were coming up and that the door was falling, precipitating him down the shaft. He says that he is lamed and permanently injured.

PLAN ENDORSED FOR WHITE WAY

Favorable Action Taken by Council Committee.

Plan Submitted by George Miller for the Flour City Ornamental Iron Works, of Minneapolis, Will Be One Recommended to Council.

The finance and electric light committees of council in joint session yesterday afternoon decided by a unanimous vote to recommend to council the acceptance of the plan for a Great White Way on Mitchell street from the Terminal station to Whitehall, on Whitehall from Mitchell street to the viaduct and on Peachtree street from the viaduct to Ellis street.

The general council will adopt the recommendation and the work of installing the new lighting system will begin at once.

The plan adopted by the committees was the one submitted by George A. Miller, representing the Flour City Ornamental Iron Works, of Minneapolis. At the meeting H. P. Keane asked that a proposition from the J. L. Mott Company be considered. He said that his company could give a series of ten times more brilliancy than Mr. Miller's company and at less cost.

It was shown, however, that Mr. Miller had secured the signatures of all the property owners and renters on the route of the Great White Way and that these signers would pay every dollar for the installment of the new lighting system and turn it over to the city free of cost, provided the city maintained it. Mr. Keane had no such proposition in writing.

Under the plan adopted there will be Corinthian standards every 70 feet apart, the total number being 125, along the entire route. On each standard there will be five lights. The plan does not contemplate flaring brilliancy, but plenty of soft light with a most artistic effect.

A representative of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company stated that the cost of maintaining the new system would be $45 a year for each standard, the lights burning from dusk to midnight. The arc lights at each corner will be still maintained and kept burning all night. The money will be taken from the appropriation to the electric light committee, which will be reimbursed when the October apportionment sheet is made out.

FAIR WEATHER TODAY, SAYS THE FORECASTER

Von Herrmann Makes a Promise of a Rainless Day.

Georgia Limericks—No. 11. There was a wise maid of Monroe who said she wanted a beau. They came round in flocks, but none had the "rocks," So, said she, "young men, it's no go."

Fair skies, cool nights, almost Indian summer, is the kind of weather Atlanta is now having and may continue to have for some time to come. The weather man predicts a fair day.

THE GOPHER WAS VERY FORGETFUL

for Saturday. There may be a few hazy, lazy clouds floating through the azure blue, but no rain.

Friday afternoon the weather really looked "fallish." The sun gave a red-dish glow and the breeze was cool enough for early autumn.

"What do you think of an auto chugging all night just because a smart young fellow didn't shut off the steam?"

The gopher was talking about one of those wise young men who think they know it all.

"I have a friend," he continued, "who just thought he knew more about autos than the men who build them. He was allowed to run a car that belongs to a relative. Thursday night he went out for a joy ride and when he returned he leaped into the back yard with the chugging wheel going at full speed. Well, that auto chugged all night and kept a lot of neighbors awake. He isn't so upish now when he talks about autos."

The loss amounts to millions of dollars.

JONES FAMILY HOLDS REUNION AUGUST 26

Music, Speeches and Dinner the Program for the Day.

The Jones family's sixth annual reunion will be held at Grant park Friday, August 26. The annual reunions of the Joneses invariably bring together a great number of Georgians from almost every section of the state and the event is always interesting and entertaining. Owners of that name who have never met before often discover a link of relationship, sometimes quite close, that would never have been suspected but for the reunion. Smiths who have attended the annual gatherings have traced kinship to the Joneses and several times the reunions have been attended by almost as many Smiths as Joneses. Well-filled baskets are always brought in great numbers, and the contents, never lacking anything good to eat, invariably satisfy healthy and often rapacious appetites. Among the Joneses are some excellent talkers and at every reunion good addresses are enjoyed as much as the good dinners. There will be plenty of excellent music during the day.

MCMURRAY'S FEES FIVE MILLIONS

If Contracts Had Been Executed.

Sale of Lands for Indians Could Have Been Made by the Gov. ernment Without Cost, Gore
Contents—Sherman Again
Mentioned.

Sulphur, Okla., August 12.—That J. F. McMurray had contracts with the Indians by which in the sale of their lands he would receive not only $5,000,000 as attorney's fees, but also agreements calling for $1,500,000 in other fees, was testified to by George W. Scott before the special congressional committee today. Scott acted as an agent for McMurray.

Scott was regarded as one of the most important witnesses in the investigation growing out of Senator T. P. Gore's charges that he had been offered a bribe to promote the approval of the contracts in congress.

Enormous Fees for McMurray.
If all the contracts McMurray held with the Indians were successfully executed, Scott testified, McMurray would secure almost five million dollars in fees for the sale on a 10 per cent basis of segregated coal and asphalt land valued at $20,000,000. These lands, Senator Gore contends, could be sold by the government without the employment of paid attorneys.

Telling of his relations with McMurray, Scott said he had seen many of the Indians in 1908 and had urged them to sign the contracts. Scott, himself a Choctaw, said he had signed the contracts because he believed McMurray would have more influence at Washington than did the Oklahoma delegation to congress.

"Did you ever have any official position from which you were released because of your connection with McMurray?" asked Chairman Burke.

"Yes, I had been secretary to Green McCurtain, chief of the Choctaws, and I was asked to resign."

Telegram Identified.
Scott identified a telegram he had sent last May to Richard Adams attorney at Washington, in which Vice President Sherman and Senator Charles Clegg, of Kansas, were referred to as understanding more than any one else what the Indians wanted.

"Both Mr. Sherman and Mr. Curtis," said Scott, "long were identified with Indian affairs and once we believed they knew more about us than did our congressmen."

"Was that the only reason for your referring to Mr. Sherman and Mr. Curtis?"

"Yes, we have absolute confidence in their ability to deal with Indian affairs."

Scott denied he ever had received any financial aid from McMurray. He insisted his interest in the contracts was based only on his anxiety to get the land sold.

He told of inducing the Indians to send telegrams to Washington urging the prompt sale of the land in May last.

McMurray Telegraphed "O. K."
"McMurray was in Washington urging the approval of his contracts, and on May 3, three days before Senator Gore says the bribe was offered, McMurray telegraphed to Scott in Oklahoma: 'Looks better here; we will win. I know.'"

"Now what did you take that to mean?" Scott was asked. "Did you think McMurray was going to get his contracts approved soon?"

"Well, it appeared he felt encouraged over the situation at Washington."

Referring to the promises of the contracts, Scott said:

"The segregated coal and asphalt lands the Indians thought they ought to get $50,000,000, but we did not ask more than $20,000,000. The surplus unallotted land was worth about $15,000,000, the lease district land perhaps as much. McMurray was to get 10 per cent of whatever money he got out of it."

Indians Frightened Into Action.
"One reason why the Indians were willing to pay a big fee," Scott said, "was that they were afraid the government would reopen the rolls and take ten thousand more Indians now excluded from sharing in the proceeds."

Scott said he believed that Indians would give 25 per cent attorneys' fees if they could realize at once.

Scott also declared that the McMurray law firm had contributed $1,000 to the campaign for the election of his tribe, signed the McMurray contracts by which, according to Senator T. P. Gore, a 10 per cent attorney fee or $5,000 would be withheld from the Indians in the sale of 400,000 acres of their land in this state.

This money, Senator Gore charges, would be paid for services which the government already has agreed to render the Indians.

Chief Johnson has made it known that he signed the contracts because of impatience at the government's delay in disposing of the land.

NEW SHORT LINE IS NOW ASSURED

Papers Signed by Chattanooga Sou. and R. & N.

Road to Link Atlanta With Chattanooga Will Come in Here Over the Seaboard Air Line—Distance Cut Down to 139 Miles.

Rome, Ga., August 12.—Late this afternoon papers were signed in Rome between Newman Erb, representing the Chattanooga Southern railroad, and H. H. Shackleton, general manager of the Rome and Northern, effecting a physical connection between the two lines and thereby assuring a new direct line from Atlanta to Chattanooga.

Newman Erb is chairman of the executive committee of the Ann Arbor railroad. He and associates bought the Chattanooga Southern at receiver's sale in New York last week. Details of the transfer are now being perfected, though the Erb syndicate is now in actual control of the property.

To Extend Roads.
The Chattanooga Southern runs from Chattanooga to Gadsden, Ala., a distance of 80 miles. Under the agreement just signed with the Rome and Northern, the Chattanooga Southern will build from Bronco, on its line in Walker county, a distance of eight miles, to Trion. The Rome and Northern will build from Gore, its present northern terminus, to Trion, a distance of nine miles. The trackage agreements entered into for a term of years between the two lines provides that each line is to use the track of the other between Chattanooga and Trion and Rome and Trion as its own. The Chattanooga Southern will build the sixteen-mile link from Rome to Rockmart, connecting there with the Seaboard Air Line, as soon as the other link is closed.

Start Work at Once.
Surveys will be put in the field immediately and construction work begun as soon as the location is made.

Mr. Erb states that no member of his syndicate is connected in any way with the Seaboard Air Line, but that mutuality of interests makes it more than likely that through trains will be operated by this route from Atlanta to Chattanooga. The distance between those two cities by the Southern is 154 miles, by the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis railroad, 142 miles, and by this Seaboard-Chattanooga Southern-Rome and Northern route, 139 miles.

Mr. Erb leaves tonight for Chattanooga.

SMILING WENDLING LANDED IN JAIL

Won't Talk About Killing of Kellner Girl.

Louisville Man Is Placed in Prison After a Cross-Country Chase of Nearly 13,000 Miles.

Louisville, Ky., August 12.—Joseph Wendling, wanted here on the charge of murdering Alma Kellner, was safely landed in the city hall here this morning after a remarkable chase across the continent and an almost equally remarkable return in charge of Captain John P. Carney, chief of the Louisville detective department.

Wendling had no sooner been ushered into the chief of police's room on the Sixth street side of the city hall than he took a position in one of the large windows and busied himself bowing and waving his bloody shirt, the crowd which had gathered in the street below. His everlasting smile was much in evidence.

It has not yet been announced when Wendling will be presented in police court. He has already been indicted by the grand jury on a charge of murder.

Longest Chase in History.
The return of Wendling to Louisville marks the end of probably the longest chase in detective history. The return was from San Francisco to Louisville stretches the real hunt of about 11,000 miles to a total of over 13,000 miles.

Commonwealth's Attorney Joseph Huffaker had a short run with Wendling in police headquarters following his arrival. All the questions asked by Mr. Huffaker were put in the presence of J. Reginald Clements, Wendling's attorney. Mr. Huffaker showed Wendling the bloody shirt, trousers and hat he is supposed to have worn on the day Alma Kellner was killed. To all of the questions asked Wendling refused to answer on the advice of counsel.

I. C. T. EXTEND TRAIN SERVICE

At Once From New Orleans to Atlanta.

Tracks of Queen and Crescent, Western Railway of Alabama and Central of Georgia to Be Used—Savannah Included in the Route.

New Orleans, August 12.—(Special.) The Illinois Central will soon extend its train service out of New Orleans to Atlanta, Savannah and other important points in the southern states, according to information given out by the officials of the road here, and may run trains into those cities at any time.

The route that the Illinois Central will use to get into Georgia, ahead of the time the railroad officials themselves figured on is claimed to be from the main line from Jackson, Miss., over the tracks of the Queen and Crescent Railroad and from Selma over the tracks of the Western Railway of Alabama to a connection with the Central of Georgia, which, it is claimed, the Illinois Central owns.

Building Connecting Link.
Some time ago the Illinois Central built a branch line from Hammond to Covington, and it is said intends to extend this line from Covington to Andalusia, across Mississippi and a portion of Alabama to connect with the Central of Georgia.

That the line will be built is admitted by everyone, but it is understood the railroad wanted to get into Georgia sooner than this line would give them the chance, and the above arrangements are being perfected to make the route a running one.

ROUND TRIP.
Chicago, $15; St. Louis, $14.

The W. & A. R. R. will sell round trip tickets good leaving Atlanta on August 20, 1910, good returning September 4, 1910. Make your reservations NOW. For full particulars, call on City Ticket Agent; C. B. Walker, Ticket Agent, Union Station; C. E. Hartman, General Passenger Agent.

BALLINGER OUT; CANNON FOLLOWS

resumed the lucrative practice of law which he left in his home state to take up the arduous duties of head of the interior department.

The retirement of Mr. Ballinger is fixed for September 15. The congressional committee will have reported by that time, and the date is sufficient to show that the various moves of Mr. Ballinger are of the campaign.

Cannon to Be Ousted.
The third move in contemplation is said to be directed against Speaker Cannon. It is not admitted in Beverly that Mr. Cannon will even be a candidate for the speakership. Representative McKinley, of Illinois, a close friend of Cannon, and chairman of the republican congressional campaign committee, was asked here the other day if he thought "Mr. Cannon could be elected to his chair again."

"I have not heard that he will be a candidate," was the significant reply.

The Cannon situation, as a thing of the future, is a little difficult to handle. Once it is known that the president is to be ousted, the various moves of Mr. Cannon are of the campaign.

Leaders Stirred to Action.
Reports have reached Beverly that the recent results in Kansas and Iowa were due largely to the activity of Speaker Cannon in Kansas, to the charges against Senator Aldrich, and to the fact that Cannon was actually intended to retire. The situation developed in these two states evidently has made an impression upon the party leaders that has stirred them to action.

Senator Aldrich would not discuss his position as president of the Senate to say that it was incidental to a cruise along the New England coast, which will extend as far east as Bar Harbor.

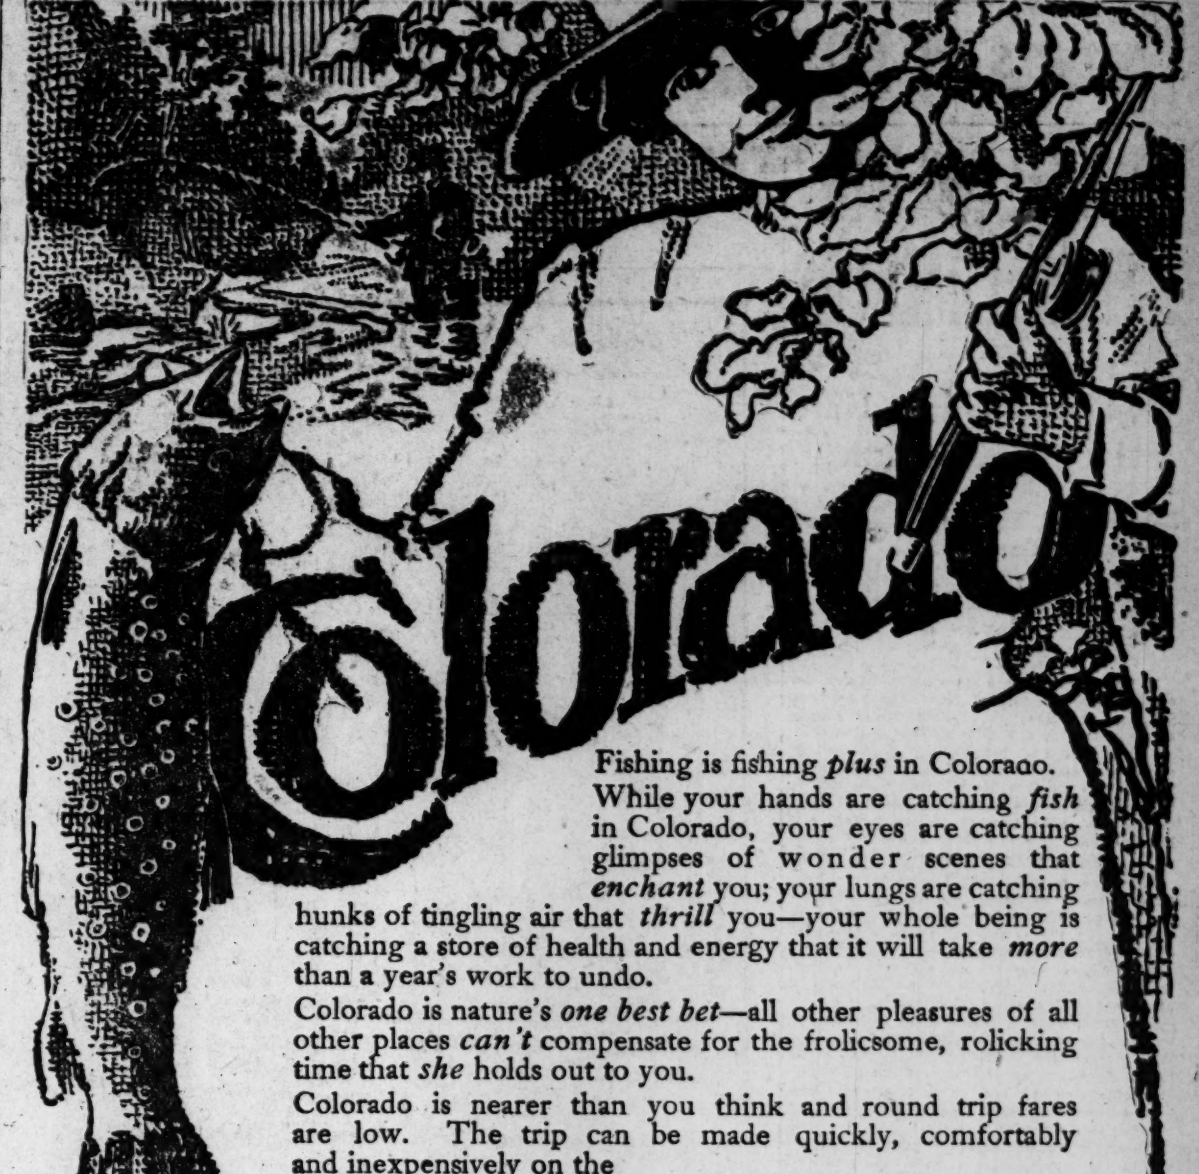

The senator talked with the president regarding his rubber statement, and Mr. Taft wanted to hear of interest. Mr. Aldrich also told Mr. Taft of his plan to make a speech during the fall in one of the western states defending the Payne-Aldrich act as a whole, and particularly replying to the charges made in reference to the cotton schedule.

Crane to the Front.
Senator Crane, of Massachusetts, has been one of the active forces in the new political movement. It was he who went west to see Secretary Ballinger, and it was also he who went to see Senator Aldrich at Warwick, R. I. last Sunday. Senator Crane's future movements will be watched with interest.

Postmaster General Frank Hitchcock, former chairman of the republican national committee, has been at Brown Monday night.

He has been in progress of friction between Mr. Hitchcock and Senator Crane, and some political jealousy as to their influence with the administration. These stories are declared here to be without foundation. The president, it is said, will continue to use both Senator Crane and Mr. Hitchcock on missions to which they are best suited. No quarrels are arisen as to their political precedence.

Mr. Hitchcock participated in the conference which the president had this afternoon with four republican leaders from Tennessee. The republicans are laying plans to capture that state this fall and they hope to do so with the aid of the independent democrats. It was said today that they were not proceeding under the theory that they can win on a straight-out republican proposition, and that the candidate to be named for governor will be a man who will be acceptable to the independent democrats.

was not allowed to forget it, for as soon as one veteran, or party of veterans, had left, others came in for the same purpose.

According to the story, G. W. Garrett, of Atlanta, said to be employed in some saw works here, while distributing Hoke Smith literature in the Terminal station in Atlanta on last Tuesday, was reminded by passersby that Camp Walker had endorsed Governor Brown for reelection.

Road for the Veterans.
His answer, as reported by a newspaper man present, and quoted in The Telegraph, follows:

"These old confederate veterans who are passing resolutions condemning Hoke Smith and endorsing Joe Brown are sore because Hoke Smith wanted to pay them quarterly instead of annually, which is best for them. They don't know what they want. Hoke Smith knows what is good for them. These old veterans are a lot of old soreheads and kickers. If you give them turkey they'd kick for cranberry sauce, and if you give them turkey and cranberry sauce they'd kick about something else. Most of the damned old skunks ought to be chloroformed anyway."

"He was sharply called down by several who heard him," continues The Telegraph story. "Among others by Mr. J. B. Keough, of the Religious Press Association, who said: 'I suppose you have no objection to your remarks about the old veterans being published?'"

"Yes, I have," said Garrett. "I'm not a public speaker. If I were you I would have a right to quote me."

"But you have just delivered a Hoke Smith speech here, and you and that young man over there are handing out Smith literature," suggested another bystander. "So I don't see how you can prevent anybody from quoting you."

Mr. Garrett withdrew from the crowd which was manifesting its indignation at his remarks.

Among those who were present and heard Mr. Garrett were:

J. B. Keough, who represents the Religious Press Association, and who has offices in the Wesleyan Memorial building in Atlanta.

Archer Writes Open Letter.
W. P. Archer, adjutant general of Camp W. H. T. Walker, United Confederate Veterans, has written an open letter to J. H. Shelton, in reply to the resolutions published in an afternoon paper on Tuesday regarding the endorsement by the camp of Governor Brown for reelection.

Mr. Archer says the camp voted 76 to 16 to endorse Governor Brown for reelection, and of the 16 who voted against the endorsement, eight were Brown men, who did not think the camp should take any action in favor of anybody.

The open letter of Mr. Archer follows:

"Mr. J. H. Shelton: My Dear Sir: I wish to say to you that you have a perfect right to vote for and work for Hoke Smith in this campaign. But I now put you on notice that you have no right to get mad because you can't turn our camp of confederate veterans, soul and body, over to Hoke Smith."

Perdue Today.

It was some hectic scrap that the Volunteers and the Crackers engaged in at Ponce de Leon yesterday afternoon, the former finally coming out victorious in a 1 to 0 pitchers' battle.

Charles Case and Pat Flaherty were the opposing twirlers and as far as pitching honors went it was an even break. Both gave up five hits and fanned two batters. Pat allowed three of the five to be bunched in one inning, this beating him.

GREAT FIELDING.
Never has a game been played on the local diamond where so many pieces of brilliant fielding were pulled off. Both sides had a finger in the pie and the sensational stunts they pulled off added to the excitement.

Dick Bayless grabbed one with one hand in the third inning from Ray's bat that was a peach and robbed Spide of a hit.

Roy Moran overtook a long single as it bounced by him from Schwartz's bat in the fourth, and by a quick relay to Berkley and a good throw by the latter, nailed Patterson at the plate.

Berkley slammed one on a line over third base in the fifth, but Scotty went up and brought it down with one hand.

Jordan stopped one with one hand from Case's bat in the eighth, after a hard run, seconded by the pitcher out at first. Jordan also got a nice put-out on a fly back of second in the ninth from Schwartz's bat.

Charles Case received Schwartz's throw with one hand in covering first on Jordan's hit in the first, making a pretty put-out.

Hank Patterson robbed Bayless of a hit by leaping into the air and snatching his pitcher with one hand in the eighth.

RAY PUTS ONE OFF.
But it remained for Ray to pull off the one that caused the excitement of the game, and which threatened to break it up at that time.

Walker hit a low liner to left field. Bay came in and grabbed for it, falling on his face and then coming up with the ball in his right hand. The whole Atlanta team earned around Patsimon at the plate and the crowd started "robber" and such pet names.

From the press box, it looked like Ray caught the ball, then dropped it, falling on his face and recovering so quickly as to deceive his umpire. It looked like a mighty bad decision from where we sat, and Scotty was robbed of a hit and a batting rally slipped in the fifth, certainly mistimed that one all right.

Evidently it was his off day, for he was having a time of it on balls and strikes, too. Look at him a little closer today, Dan. Atlanta fans are the squealer in this, and you know it. They certainly had a howl when that one yesterday, though, and you got it. But, then, they all have their days, even the best of us.

VOLUNTEERS TALLY.
The only run of the game was made in the fourth inning. After Lynch had been retired, Wiseman cut loose a single. Patterson followed with a double to right, on which Tom Fisher did some mighty quick fielding, leading Wiseman to third.

Schwartz came along with a long single between Moran and Bayless, scoring Wiseman, but when Patterson tried to score on it, too, he was snatched at the plate on a close play of fielding as an outfielder has ever done in Atlanta and by two pretty throws, one by Moran and one by Berkley.

Equaling Record With Wind

Reins—Walter Hal Equals
Ross K's Record.

Cleveland, Ohio, August 12.—Driven by Charles Tanner, of Cleveland, C. K. G. Billings' black gelding, Urban, today established a new world record by trotting a mile at North Randall track without a wind shield, beating Lou Dillon's record by 2 1/4 seconds and coming within 1/4 of a second of equaling the record made by her with a wind shield, October 24, 1905, when she trotted a mile at Memphis in 1:50 1/4.

Tanner drove his first quarter in 29 3/4. The gelding reached the 36 fms. It took the gelding 30 3/4 seconds to negotiate the third quarter. He did the last quarter in 29 seconds flat.

A season's record came near falling in the Forest City stake race, the third event of the day. Walter Hal, pushed by Ella Ambulator, equaled the 2:19 record set by the late Ben Noe, who won the stake in 2:19 1/4.

Walter Hal took the second heat and Ben Noe, who won the first, took the third. The first money under the three-heat plan. The final of the first division of the "stake" continued from yesterday, when Henry H. who of the Times Futurity at Detroit last week, was an early winner in the 2:19 trot for 3-year-olds.

Four heats of the 2:19 trot were run without a winner developing and the finish was postponed to tomorrow. Summary: First division Trot, 3-year-olds, 2:19 1/4, 2:19 3/4, 2:19 1/2, 2:19 3/4. SUMMER COLDS

Are Considered by Doctors More Dangerous Than Winter Colds.

A person is quite as apt to catch cold in the summer as in the winter, but it is harder to cure a cold in the summer than in the winter. In winter the bracing air assists the remedy to overcome the cold, but the sultry, depressing weather of summer retards the cure of colds.

The public is much interested in knowing a remedy that will successfully cope with summer colds. A remedy that covers just such cases is Peruna. Experience has taught that it is the one remedy that promptly expels summer colds of every character and description.

Miss Ivy Gray, Fairview, Ky., says: "I have taken Peruna, and would say that it is the best medicine for coughs and colds I ever saw. I find that it always cures a cold in a short while. It also strengthens and builds up the system."

themselves from the service.

All the Mutineers Suspended.

Last night's mutineers were all suspended today. They will appeal to Safety Director McCune, who will dismiss all, as Mayor Marshall says that none of them shall be connected with the department while he is executive.

The mayor made no call today for the return of state troops. Officers of the Fourth regiment, four companies of which are stationed in Columbus, say they have been told to hold themselves ready for service, but at the adjutant general's office it is denied that preparations have been made for calling out troops.

Mayor Marshall, as he did last night, again put police on cars tonight. There were not enough officers to man all cars.

Call for Volunteers.

The mayor during the day intimated that tonight probably would be the last on which police would be so used. There are indications that tomorrow or Monday night he will order a return to the system of patrols by police in automobiles.

Mayor Marshall today called for 2,000 volunteers for police duty. He took the brunt of all criticism made against the manner in which the situation has been handled, but said that if his critics were sincere, they would offer to perform police duty. Up to 8 o'clock tonight there had not been a single response to his appeal. Sheriff Cartain this evening enrolled twelve special deputy sheriffs for strike duty when the mayor called upon him for aid. Members of his office force scoured the town and country but were able to enlist only a dozen men.

POPE'S EFFORTS STAY HAND OF CATHOLICS AND THREATENED "UPRISING" IS AVERTED

San Sebastian, Spain, August 13.—Despite the threats of the Carlists the troops have been able to maintain order here, and, while many arrests have been made, the worst of the trouble is believed to be over. Catholics are extremely indignant at the government's repressive measures, at they claim that the demonstrations planned were not Carlist uprisings, but were arranged to show the disapproval of the people to the orders of Premier Canalejas, who so far has had the earnest support of King Alfonso. General Weyler's assignment to command of the troops in this district is taken to mean that the government does not intend to allow the uprising to succeed. The Catholics here believe that the efforts of the pope to settle the entire matter will prove successful, and that the end of the controversy is in sight.

blow up a car passing the state institution for the feeble-minded late tonight. It carried no passengers and the crew escaped injury. The car was badly damaged.

Rioting tonight was not so serious as last night. However, two policemen and a number of carmen were injured. A motorman on the east side alighting to attach a fuse was assaulted. The police rescued him.

Policemen C. H. Davis and J. W. Overtures were hit by stones. A motorman who saw a man throw a stone at his car jumped off and grappled with the man, only to be knocked unconscious by a pair of brass knuckles. A score of arrests were made, including several stone throwers.

To Fight Forest Fires.

Washington, August 13.—Major General Leonard Wood, chief of staff of the army, today asked the interior department and the forest service to agree on a joint plan for the use of United States troops for fighting the forest fires in the west.

MEN COME TO BLOWS OVER GOVERNOR'S RACE

Because they could not agree as to who should be elected chief executive, it is said, an admirer of Hoke Smith and an admirer of Governor Brown came to blows at the corner of Broad and Marietta streets at 9:30 o'clock, the result being that Oscar Bickerson was slashed on the back of the neck from ear to ear, and his opponent, J. W. McDonald, was locked up on the charge of assault with intent to kill. Bickerson's injuries are not serious.

WANT 13 AND 23; 7 AND 11 POPULAR

Many Requests From Autoists for Lucky and Unlucky Numbers.

Evidence is plenty that the average automobilist is a man who trembles not at the ill-starred number 13 and the supposedly "hoodooed" number 23, and that he yearns to have one of the commonly reputed lucky numbers 7 and 11 dangling at the rear of his speed wagon, is piling up in abundance in the office of Secretary of State Phil Cook at the capitol.

When the legislature passed the automobile regulation bill requiring autoists to register their cars with the secretary of state and secure numbers for their machines, Secretary of State Cook puzzled long over the disposition of Nos. 13 and 23.

"Nobody is going to want those numbers," declared Mr. Cook emphatically, "but somebody has got to take them. I hate to just hold a man up and tag him with 13 or 23. It looks like an imposition. I suppose we will have to draw straws to see who the victim shall be."

But now Mr. Cook's angle of trouble has veered considerably. The question is not who shall be victimized with 13 or 23, but who shall be favored by having one or the other of those numbers bestowed upon him.

Ed Inman to Get "13."

From at least two prominent automobilists of the state Secretary Cook has received urgent requests that he give their cars No. 13. These are Ed H. Inman, of Atlanta, and Senator Patterson, of the eighth district. Mr. Inman will probably draw the number, as his application was received first, and Senator Patterson will have to struggle along through muddy roads with some homely number unknown to fame.

John J. Woodside, the well-known real estate dealer, wants No. 23 for his car, and he wants it so much that he has written Secretary Cook a letter urging him as a personal friend to give him that number for his car.

Mr. Woodside will very likely get No. 23, then he will probably name his car "skiddoo," and if he doesn't have a combination that will give him the right-of-way over any vehicle of transportation known to man there will most likely be a trick in it somewhere.

Numerous applicants have expressed a desire for either 7 or 11. Both are considered lucky by the automobilists and Mr. Cook will have to follow the rule of "first come, first served."

The secretary of state is already making arrangements to secure the number plates provided for by the new law and he will very probably let the contract some time next week so that he will be in position to accommodate the auto owners with numbers when the law becomes effective on September 1.

FRENZY SEIZES HOLY ROLLERS

Irwin street, had been telling Acting Recorder J. B. Everett of the annoyance to which he and his neighbors were nightly subjected by the noisy religious rites of the Holy Rollers. His testimony was suddenly cut short by a loud shout of "Glory, hallelujah," from the negro bench, and the startled court, looking up, saw a negro jumping up and down in a religious frenzy. Her arms were wildly waving about, her eyes turned up in their sockets so that only the whites were visible, while from her lips came a weird gibberish that was wholly unintelligible.

Scarcely had she been quieted when another negro was "taken by the Holy Ghost" and went through the same actions. Even upon the white spectators this strange dance produced an uncanny effect. Its effect upon the negroes was almost instantaneous. At first they were visibly agitated. A tremor ran through their limbs, they became rigid and fast, half-closed their eyes, while from their lips came half-muttered religious phrases. Then in an instant the dance became contagious and, spreading like wild fire, embraced the entire sect.

Never has there been such a scene in the recorder's court as that which then ensued. There was a bedlam of crazy negroes, howling, crying, laughing and weeping. No two negroes seemed to be "taken" in the same way. Each one had a pet step or gait to which he seemed particularly devoted. One waltzed, another two-stepped, while a third performed a graceful step half way between a cake walk and an Indian war dance. All were speaking an outlandish gibberish at the tops of their lungs, which was interspersed with shouts of "Glory be," "Hallelujah," "I'm saved," "I'm sanctified" and other religious phrases. A very stout and fat negro, making a continuous but stammering attempt to cry "Sanctified," succeeded only in producing a series of S's, thus achieving the noise made by an active buzz saw.

No More Testimony Needed.

Through the din was heard the voice of the acting recorder. "Since we seem to be favored with an actual demonstration, the taking of further testimony in this case is superfluous."

Officers hurried into court and began crowding the "fanatics" through the door and down the stairs. Many ran out into the street and thence to their homes. About twenty were taken back to the cells, where they continued their strange devotions with unabated fervor.

After an hour's time had passed and the imprisoned Holy Rollers had calmed down somewhat, five of them were led back to the court room and questioned in an endeavor to get an explanation of the strange proceedings. Even then they could hardly talk intelligently and could not repress a spasmodic waving of the arms and muttering of the lips.

One and all testified that their actions had been purely involuntary. They had been seized by the Holy Ghost, they said, and had become "so happy that they just had to holler." When asked by the judge if they would go quietly to their homes, they all asserted that they thought they could, but would not vouch for their actions if the "Holy Ghost" came upon them again.

All of them were intensely serious about their religion. George Culbert, a negro, earnestly advised Recorder Everett to "get the religion of the sanctified ones to save him from sin." The recorder declined with thanks.

Atlanta Holy Rollers.

The Atlanta Holy Rollers comprise a congregation of about 200, presided over by their pastor, J. J. Cato. They are a branch of the widely organized Colored Fire-Baptized Holiness church, of which W. H. Fuller, colored, is general overseer. Their belief is characterized by the fanatical dance from which they take their nickname, and by the "speaking with tongues." These two psychic phenomena have been found by authorities of religious psychology in many of the primitive religious cults the world over. The Holy Rollers claim that they can substantiate their beliefs on the authority of the Bible, and point out that the Lord's disciples "spoke with tongues." They further claim that the dances spoken of in the Old Testament, in which Saul is said to have participated, were trance dances.

The meetings of the Holy Rollers at North Boulevard and Irwin street will, in all events, be broken up, for Chief Jennings is now firmly convinced that they are a public nuisance.

GIRL AND HER LOVER SHOT BY BURGLAR

Robber Emptied His Revolver at the Couple Before Escaping.

New York, August 13.—Miss Etta Grossman was so seriously wounded this evening that she will probably die, and her sweetheart, Meyer Rabinowitz, was shot twice in an encounter which aroused the neighborhood.

After a number of shots had been fired policemen entered the apartment and found the young woman shot through the chest and her admirer with a bullet in his neck.

The girl was hurried to Gouverneur hospital, but Rabinowitz was able to talk, and said that while he was visiting Miss Grossman, to whom he was engaged, a stranger entered the apartment and was robbing it when Rabinowitz found him. The shooting followed, the robber emptying his revolver, and then disappearing with some of the loot.

Wife Murderer Caught.

Asheville, N. C., August 13.—After having escaped capture for over two years, John Goodlet, a negro, wanted for the murder of his wife, in this city, was arrested today at Wehills, S. C. Goodlet confessed, and he will be brought here for trial. Goodlet shot and killed his wife two years ago in a domestic quarrel, and made his escape in the crowd that gathered after the tragedy.

Mayor William M. Jones Dead.

Petersburg, Va., August 13.—William M. Jones, who was serving his third term as mayor of Petersburg, died at his home tonight, aged 63 years. He had been in ill-health about two months. Mayor Jones was born in Raleigh, N. C., but had lived here since the war between the states. In which he served with a North Carolina regiment of artillery, and was lieutenant commander of A. P. Hill camp, United Confederate Veterans, of this city. His widow and five children survive.

A Ladies' Shoe Department Claims a Place at Muse's

EACH YEAR we look for—and find—a place for some additional advantage that will increase the attractions of our business.

Each time we have felt ourselves a little nearer the top; but, like Br'er Rabbit, we always find a place to climb a "little higher."

The highest climb to which we have aspired recently is the most beautiful and best equipped department, devoted to Shoes for Ladies, Misses and Children, in all Dixie Land.

The second floor provides the location, sun-lighted and spacious, separated from all other departments, where is demonstrated our dream come true.

We have installed here a department exclusively for Ladies, where the air of refinement is regnant; and we believe that the women of Atlanta will welcome our endeavor in their behalf with enthusiasm and satisfaction.

We are going to give you precisely the same Shoes which experienced New York shoppers select after studied comparison—the best lines of Shoes at $3.50, $4.00, $5.00, $6.00, $8.00 and up, that can be found in that world-renowned shopping district.

We have combined expert knowledge and careful thought, with the hearty co-operation of those manufacturers that lead in their respective lines, to bring about the result indicated above.

Finally, we have added our good name, that we prize above all our assets, as a guarantee for the performance of our agreement.

We planned a department for the Fall of 1910. Our arrangements were completed a little earlier than we had hoped, which gives up the opportunity of saying that we are now open for business, and we extend a cordial invitation to all the ladies of Atlanta to visit us; with a further statement that in a few days a Formal Opening will be announced.

Included in our Fall line of Shoes, we show you at present a particularly beautiful line of Suede, Patent and Plain Leathers, in Oxfords and Pumps, most likely the very shoes you have been wanting for a long time.

The department is in the hands of these capable and experienced young gentlemen:

Mr. V. V. McBryde,
Mr. Jack Heggie,
Mr. J. A. Harris.

Quality, style, courtesy and cordial service shall be the slogan of this new department at

WILLIAMS SPEAKS IN BROWN'S BEHALF

Discusses Issues Before Spalding Voters.

Speaker Argued That Administration Has Made Good—Attacks Policies of Hoke Smith. Predicts Smith's Defeat.

Griffin, Ga., August 13.—(Special.)—Hon. Ebb Williams spoke in behalf of Governor Brown's candidacy here today. He was greeted by an enthusiastic crowd of over 500.

His address was well received and made a good impression. The speaker was applauded frequently. It was the biggest Brown rally ever held here.

The Brown Club, with several hundred members, was organized with J. P. Persons, president; E. H. Davis, secretary; P. M. Cleveland, treasurer, and vice presidents from each militia district, cotton mills and manufacturing plants.

Mr. Williams spoke in part as follows:

1. He discussed at length the manner in which Governor Smith trifled with the people about running this race, after having declined more than once, stating that it looked as if he had been running ever since Brown's election.

2. That it was said by The Telegraph and other papers that after Brown's election, when the legislature met, he had regular caucuses at his house on West Peachtree street, setting up another government to the one in the capital.

3. He discussed the cruelty of dismissing McIlendon because he differed with him on a question of public policy, and it was said that he had many members of the house and senate at his house during the investigation, which amounted to tampering with the jury when a man was on trial for his political life.

4. He discussed also that having two flags in Georgia meant nothing but a Hoke Smith flag in opposition to the democratic platform of the democratic party adopted 1908.

5. He showed that the railroad commission of three men and ample time, and that to increase to five and a special attorney was unnecessary, and was for the benefit of Governor Smith's friends.

6. He stated further that as the supreme court had decided that the governor had the power to dismiss a commissioner would give him, is elected, the power to kick off every member who did not agree with him, and he would be the whole railroad commission.

7. He commented at length on how Governor Smith attempted to rape the small counties two years ago by taking away their power and giving it to the large counties for the purpose, it was said, that he might take the vote of Georgia in his vest pocket to the national convention at Denver to use in his interest for the vice presidency.

8. He showed that Governor Smith was always on record against disfranchisement, but when certain parties made it obligatory in the last race, he quickly sacrificed his convictions and stood for disfranchisement.

9. He showed that the abolition of the convict lease system was recommended by the democratic platform in 1908, and when the legislature met he stated to the legislature that he did not know how to handle the question and could offer no remedy, so he was in no wise responsible for the abolition of the convict lease system.

10. That port rates such as he advocated would bankrupt the home manufacturer and would be found and ridiculous, but that port rates were solely under the jurisdiction of the national interstate commerce commission.

11. His Madison speech and foreign corporations were discussed at length, and at the same time The New York Sun and other papers said his views would amount to confiscation.

12. He also discussed how suddenly the governor dropped on free silver and deserted Cleveland's cabinet.

13. He commented on the fact that from his record he was too autocratic and ambitious to be a safe public official.

Brown's Administration.

14. He then took up Governor Brown's administration, and showed that he acted right in the Mitchell case, as we could not have a law for the rich and one for the poor. He also showed if he had not sent troops to Durham he would have been false to the constitution of Georgia, which commands him to protect life, liberty and property. He also showed that Governor Brown's argument was unanswerable on the Western and Atlantic terminals, as better property could be had for less money, and that it was left by the legislature entirely to his discretion as to whether or not he would accept the property. He then answered the argument of a do-nothing policy, stating that the country and all forms of the property had been a lot of it. He then commented on the condition of Georgia and the prosperity of the farmers. He then made an appeal to them, asking if they would turn out a faithful official, who had done his duty, to gratify the personal ambition or spleen of one man.

15. He then compared Hoke Smith with the principles set out in the democratic platform, showing the superiority of that instrument.

16. He then answered the assertion that the Brown followers were "railroad ringsters," "whiskey bums" and "professional politicians," showing that a majority of the country counties gave Brown his seat as governor.

17. He also showed that railroad rates were reduced during Governor Terrell's administration, and that Governor Smith's commission of five and the rate to 2 1/2 cents, which Governor Brown, as commissioner, voted down.

18. He then appealed to them in the name of prosperity and good government to elect Brown by the largest majority that he had ever received, and predicted that Fulton county and the state would overwhelmingly endorse his administration.

PROTESTS THE USE OF CHECK REINS

Sigmund Meyer, a German, who resides at No. 143 Spring street and who has been a resident of Atlanta for a short while, has been making some interesting observations about the way in which horses and mules are taken care of in this part of the world. As there are some very excellent laws in his fatherland as to the care of animals, he is greatly surprised at the way in which stock is treated in this community. He says the laws are very slack. In Germany, for instance, it is against the law to use check reins over a horse's head. Speaking of this Mr. Meyer says:

"Can there be anything, in the least, wrong or cruel in our time-honored custom of drawing our horses' heads back in this way in order to make them appear a little more spirited than they really are? This German thinks there may be. While he acknowledges that we may not, on account of the sanction of long usage, realize at once the situation and uselessness of the custom, yet he claims that he has many reasons why it is not only useless, but worse than useless. It may be that he is right.

"The end does not justify the means. If a horse holds his head high, he does so because of his spirit. Why force him to hold it higher? By so doing the effect of naturalness is destroyed. It is the scrub or poorly provided-for horse, however, that endures the most from the custom. For him there is but one comfortable way in which to carry his head. That is the way it comes from his shoulder. He is forced to look game and happy, when in reality he feels the opposite. So long as there is an overhead check rein the old, the scrub and the poorly fed horses must be jerked stiff-necked, must look young and beautiful.

"My feelings are hurt at the ignorance and brutality of some drivers, and at the fact that the officers of the law do not take the part of the animal.

INSTRUCTIVE ADDRESSES AT CRUSHERS' MEETING

Five Hundred Copies of Proceedings Printed for Outside Distribution.

Secretary W. M. Hutchinson, of the Cotton Seed Crushers' Association of Georgia, has received from the printer the proceedings of the sixth annual convention of the Cotton Seed Crushers' Association of Georgia, which was held at Tallulah Falls on June 30 and 31 and is now distributing them among the members of the association and their friends. So instructive in the many values and uses of cotton seed products are the able addresses delivered at this convention, the association has had printed 500 additional copies which will be furnished those who are interested in the cotton seed oil industry as giving the most comprehensive statements regarding these products.

In this book of proceedings are found in addition to the addresses of welcome and responses, the president's address and the reports of the secretary and treasurer, which covered the routine of the proceedings; a splendid address by Dr. E. L. Worsham, state entomologist, who delivered a most instructive talk on the approach of the dreaded boll weevil, commonly known as the Mexican cotton boll weevil, which he predicts will infect Georgia in three years. Dr. Worsham stated the United States government was now engaged in experiments looking to the extermination of this pest.

There is also an able address by W. A. Reynolds, of Charlotte, on the necessity of a uniform feed law which will not work a hardship on the best feed, cotton seed meal and cotton seed hulls. Also an address by Dr. E. N. Neighbert, a government expert attached to the United States department of agriculture, on the fight being waged in Georgia to eradicate the cattle tick; a splendid address by Dr. A. M. Soule on "Extending the Use of Cotton Seed Products." This is one of the ablest addresses delivered by this eminent authority. Also the address of Judge Henry C. Hammond, of Augusta, Ga., on "Some Things of Interest to the Oil Mill Industry," and the concluding address of the convention by Dr. W. C. Bryant, of Camp Yonah Sanitarium, on the subject of "Cotton Oil as a Nutrient in Anemia."

Secretary Hutchinson is now mailing out these proceedings of the association, which will be read with interest.

FOR HEAVIER TAXES CORPORATIONS APPEAL

Chicago, August 13.—At the request of the Standard Oil Company, its personal property assessment in Chicago was increased $60,000 yesterday by the board of review. In actual cases this means that the corporation will pay about $160 more into the county treasury than if it had allowed the assessment estimate of $150,000 as the personal valuation to stand. Last year the Chicago Telephone Company took the reviewer's breath away by requesting an increase of $2,000,000.

BOND NOT ALLOWED MORTON BROTHERS

Trio Remanded to Jail After Hearing.

Preliminary Hearing at Grays, Ga., Before Justice Farrar Completed—Trial to Be Held in October.

Macon, Ga., August 13.—After a preliminary hearing, which lasted two days, Sam Morton, Luther Morton and Tom Morton, brothers, were today bound over to the October grand jury of Jones county to answer for the murder of Morris and Steve Etheridge, who were shot and killed in a free-for-all fight Friday a week ago.

Justice of the Peace Farrar committed the brothers to jail without bond. The hearing was marked by the stubborn defense of the Mortons, who endeavored to prove that they were justified in killing the Etheridge brothers. Sixty witnesses were heard. The hearing took place in the courthouse at Gray.

MONTGOMERY GIRL SLAIN BY RIFLE'S DISCHARGE

Miss Ailene Smith Victim of Her Brother-in-Law's Weapon.

Montgomery, Ala., August 13.—Miss Ailene Smith, aged 18, was killed yesterday afternoon at the family home at Millbrook, Elmore county, by the accidental discharge of a rifle belonging to her brother-in-law, Ernest Whetstone.

Mr. and Mrs. Whetstone had been away and returned in a buggy. Miss Smith ran out to meet them and the gun, in some way, was fired, in taking it from the buggy.

The ball struck the young lady in the head, death resulting in a short time.

SUMMER SEASON CLOSES WITH PLAYGROUND EXHIBIT

The summer season will close for the playground children with a big and interesting competitive gathering Thursday afternoon, August 25, at the baseball park at Ponce de Leon, where representatives from all the playgrounds of the city will contest for prizes.

All arrangements have been completed and this meeting will be the climax of an altogether successful summer on the playgrounds.

The events will be held between the hours of 3 and 5 o'clock, several occurring at the same time under the direction of various teachers in order to conclude within the given hours.

Wednesday's band will furnish music for the occasion and the public is cordially invited and urged to attend in order to see what has been accomplished in the playgrounds during the summer. There will be no admission fee.

Children from the following playgrounds will participate in the games, all of which will be new and interesting: From the Grant and Linden street playground, Miss Viola Parks, director;

NEW LAWS PASSED BY THE PRINTERS

Joint Ownership Given in the Printing Trades Union Label.

Minneapolis, Minn., August 13.—The International Typographical Union, before it adjourned today, passed a law giving joint ownership in the Allied Printing Trades label to the Brotherhood of Book Binders, the International Pressmen and Assistants, the Stereotypers and the Photo-Engravers' Union.

Tentative plans were made for the organization of a new label association.

A closer affiliation between the allied printing trades will be presented to the other unions at a conference to be held later.

The proposition for equal representation on the joint conference board was voted down.

The convention also decided that a flat rate of $1 per month per member for dues, recommended by the laws committee, shall be put to a referendum vote.

Mr. Perry favors a revision of the freight rates of Georgia, so that the gross discriminations against consumers of Georgia in favor of Tennessee may be done away with.

He also favors a law requiring railroads to settle all shortages on shipments before they can collect any freight on shipments which reach destination short.

"In other words, where a consignee finds part of his goods lost or stolen in transit, instead of being required to receive part of them and compelled to pay the freight on something which he does not receive, as well as to be out the use of his money for many months, let the railroad settle with him then and there.

"The railroads should be required to meet and settle the losses for which they are admittedly responsible, as promptly and fairly as they require the shipper or consignee to pay the freight charges. What's sauce for the goose is sauce for the gander. It is only fair and right, and I ask for the Georgia merchant and shipper no more and no less than the same equitable treatment which the roads exact from them."

JOHN J. WOODSIDE

Announces for County Commissioner.

Elsewhere in the columns of today's paper will be found the announcement of Hon. John J. Woodside for one of the two positions on the county commission from the county-at-large, subject to the primary of August 23.

Mr. Woodside has been identified with the business life of Atlanta for more than a score of years, and his familiarity with the needs of both city and county—the south side and the north side, the east side and the west side—at him admirably to fill the position he seeks.

In his announcement Mr. Woodside says: "I appreciate the fact that the city of Atlanta pays a very large proportion of the county tax, and I think it fair and reasonable that a just proportion of the road and street work should be done inside the limits of Atlanta.

"I also believe that it is of the utmost importance to the city of Atlanta and the county-at-large, that the main arteries should be connected by cross-roads, so that the citizens of the county can go from one portion to the other without being forced to come to the center of the city.

"If elected, I promise to exercise fairness in the distribution of road work, without any preference to the north side or the south side, the east side or the west side. I promise, if elected, to represent not any one section, but the entire county.

"I promise an economical administration of the county's affairs, so that taxes may be kept at the lowest rate possible.

THOUSANDS FACE GRIM STARVATION IN MANY RELIGIONS AND WHITE STATES

As Result of the Floods in Japan.

Dykes Break in the Vicinity of Tokyo and Many Wards of the City Are Flooded—Question of Feeding Stricken People Is Causing Dread.

 335 DEAD BODIES FOUND AND 500 PERSONS MISSING.

 Tokyo, August 14.—At 6 o'clock this morning it was announced that the flood was subsiding. The casualties reported up to date are 33 dead and 500 missing. The damage to property is enormous.

Tokio, August 13.—The waters of the River Sumida are still rising and the Honjo and Fukudawa wards of Tokyo are nearly completely submerged. Tens of thousands of persons are homeless and starving. One of the three more important embankments guarding Tokyo has broken. Should the second and third break half the capital would be submerged.

Troops On Guard.
 The threatened embankments are now being guarded by troops. At 6 o'clock this evening the steady rise of the water was held to a standstill by the inundation of the buildings of Fukagawa gas and electric lights are failing. Thousands of homeless persons are being sheltered in the temples and schoolhouses, at which relief stations the most deplorable sights are witnessed. The victims of the flood are wholly dependent upon public relief. Thousands more have been unable to find shelter, owing to the insufficiency of boats to convey them to places of safety and they are exposed to the rain and hunger. Every available boat is being employed in the work of rescue and to convey food where it is most needed.

To Feed the Stricken.
 The question of feeding the stricken people is causing apprehension. The vegetable and fish supplies are falling and the stock of biscuits already is nearly exhausted. There is no fear, however, for the supply of rice. The waters of the Sumida river is almost washed out of the bottoms of the bridges. The climate of the inundation is expected tonight.

The mountain flood in the neighborhood of Karuzawa has destroyed the Mikasa Hotel.
 Many foreigners were stopping there, but fortunately no fatalities have been reported so far.

GEN. GORDON ELECTED OVER T. C. LOONEY

Defeats His Competitor by 2,000 Majority in Tenth Tennessee District.

Memphis, Tenn., August 13.—In the tenth congressional district to select a democratic nominee, Gen. George W. Gordon, of Memphis, secured a renomination over T. C. Looney, his competitor, by a majority ranging from 2,000 to 2,500.

General Gordon was selected as commissioner-in-chief of the United Confederate Veterans at the reunion in Mobile. A democratic nomination in this district is equivalent to an election. General Gordon has served two terms in Congress from this district.

Rate Hearing Ordered.
 Washington, August 13.—An order was issued today by the interstate commerce commission directing that a hearing be held on the matter of rate advances recently made in the freight rates of western railroads begun on August 29 in Chicago. The order is directed against the Chicago and North Western, the Great Northern, the Missouri and Illinois freight committee freight territories.

WENDLING APPEALS TO PUBLIC FOR AID

Says He Is the Victim of Powerful Interests—Asks Fair Trial.

Louisville, Ky., August 13.—Joseph Wendling today issued an appeal to the public for funds to aid in defraying the expenses of his trial. In his statement Wendling says he is innocent of the crime with which he is charged, and that "powerful interests" are allied against him. He says he does not ask for mercy, but only a fair hearing; that secure in his own knowledge of his innocence, he asks only a fair and lawful trial.

He points to the fact that he is a foreigner and without funds to properly present his defense. "I feel that there is fairness enough in this community to help me to this and to see that the guilty person punished," he says.

Wendling asks that contributions be sent to his attorney, J. Reginald Clements.

WILD-CAT DISTILLERY ON DECATUR, ALA., STREET

Worm of 80-Gallon Capacity Seized by Police Officers.

Decatur, Ala., August 13.—A wild cat distillery, located on one of the principal streets of the town, was raided by local police last night.

A worm of 80-gallon capacity, 1,600 gallons of mash and 30 gallons of whiskey, was seized. J. H. Hodges and L. E. Carter were arrested, charged with operating the still.

Bank Closes Its Doors.
 Biddeford, Maine, August 13.—A decided sensation was created in Biddeford and Saco today when it was officially announced that the York County Savings Bank, of this city, had closed its doors because of alleged irregularities in the accounts of Richmond H. Ingersoll, for 50 years treasurer of the institution, and one of the leading citizens of Biddeford. The bank is in the hands of a state bank examiner. No statement has yet been made.

Interesting Figures Gathered by Census Bureau.

Over 200 Christian Sects and Thousands of People Who Are Devotees of the So-Called Heathen Beliefs—Many Chinese Temples in the Country.

Washington, August 13.—Religious freedom in the United States sheltered under its tolerant and ample folds thousands of representatives of a number of the so-called heathen beliefs. In addition to more than 200 various sects of Christianity, according to census bureau statistics dealing with the religious life of the country. Among the former are Buddhists, Confucianists and Bahaists who are engaged in an organized way in the spread of their doctrines in this country.

The data forming the basis of the volume in question was gathered in 1906. It is now in proof, but there is no assurance as to when it will be given to the public. In addition to statistics of the various denominations, the work will present a brief history of each, also the pertinent facts regarding their doctrine and polity. The compilation is the work of Dr. Edwin M. Bliss.

Followers of Confucius.
 Up to the time of the investigation there had been no effort to effect any organization for the promotion of Confucianism, but the text tells of a society of the Chinese sage's followers which was organized in New York city in 1901 among the Hongkong students of Columbia university. Contending that Buddhism is only a system of ethics, they undertook to demonstrate that Confucianism was a real religion, and a regular system of services was established by a well-defined organization.

The organized followers of Buddhism are Chinese and Japanese. Their churches, known officially as "temples," by the irreverent are referred to as "Joss" houses. There are 62 Chinese and 12 Japanese temples in this country, the former being distributed over twelve, the latter over three states. California shelters all but half of the Chinese houses, about 40, which went down under the San Francisco cataclysm, had remained in ruins to the time of the enumeration.

New York boasted of 15 of the Chinese temples, the remainder being scattered over ten states, mostly in the west. The Chinese Buddhists have only one priest in this country, and conduct no recognized system of worship. There is no record of membership. There is no sermon; keep no Sabbath and have no religious service. The only use for their temples are as places at which individual devotees may consult their patron saints.

Three deities are recognized in the American temples. The god Kuan, a mighty duke of the ancient Han dynasty, the goddess of Fortune and the Goddess of Mercy.

Buddhists in United States.
 The American-Japanese Buddhists are of the progressive Shin Shu sect, which is missionary in character. They discard the ascetic practices of the more austere Buddhist sects, and allow the priests to marry and have no ban on meat or other food. The societies are well organized, each having a priest. General headquarters are in San Francisco, and they have both journals and schools devoted to the propagation of the faith. In 1906 their membership in this country was 2,387, of which 778 were females.

There is no Shintoism, an explanation of which is found in the fact that this religion attaches itself too closely to the person of the Japanese emperor. In a way the Hindu religion is represented by the Vedanta Society, with organizations in New York, Pittsburgh, San Francisco and Los Angeles. It was organized by some Hindu teachers who came here in 1893 to the World's Fair. Its name, from an ancient Hindu philosophy, means "the end of all wisdom." It is a non-sectarian, seeking to harmonize all religious systems. Oriental philosophies as taught by the Theosophists, have four bodies, with 3,336 members, in the United States.

Followers of Bahaism.
 While Bahaism, strictly speaking, is non-Christian and foreign, its followers are native, and not necessarily non-Christian. This is a comparatively new sect, growing out of the teachings of a Persian leader of the middle of the last century, named Ali Mohammed. He claimed to be the forerunner "of him whom God would manifest," and called himself "Bab," or "the Gate." Later came Baha Ulla, who claimed to be the one whose coming had been foretold, and from him the real name of the body is derived.

In 1906 he had 1,800 followers in the United States, who worshipped in 24 places through 14 states. They teach tolerance, love, charity, and regard all religions as divine. Hence, they profess not to interfere with the ordinary doctrinal beliefs of their members.

Another church of Asiatic origin, but still Christian, is the Armenian, which has 75 organizations in this country, most of them in the eastern states, 29 in Massachusetts alone. Their communicants are generally Armenians, many of whom fled to this country to escape persecution.

The eastern orthodox church, or Greek church, has 129,606 communicants. This is the state church of Russia and Greece. Of the 411 churches here, 59 represent the former nationality. There also are Serbian and Syrian branches. The Greeks have 334 organizations, the Serbians 215, and the Syrians 215.

Various Christian Sects.
 The volume also tells of the various Christian sects which are considered more purely American, and will show the various branches thereof. It will show that while there are only 51 main bodies, there are 215 church organizations, many of them professing a faith only a shade different from others. For instance, there are 11 Baptist bodies, 24 Lutheran, 15 Methodist and 12 Presbyterian. The same is true of less known organizations. There are 18 Mennonite, 7 Adventist, 4 Dunker or Dunkard, and 3 Quaker or Friend bodies.

There appears no division in either the Roman Catholic or Protestant Episcopal church, although it is shown that efforts to modify their creeds have resulted in the establishment of independent bodies. They are designated

CONVENTION OF MINERS MARKED BY TURMOIL

Efforts to Put Through Indorsement of the Illinois Strike Fail.

Indianapolis, Ind., August 13.—Attempts to put through the special national convention of the United Mine Workers an indorsement of the Illinois strike failed today when President Thomas Lewis ruled every motion to that effect out of order.

"There will be no railroad strike," declared Lewis after the third attempt to get a motion indorsing the strike before the convention. We have agreed on that. There are other strikes in other districts and the other districts want to be heard from and we will hear them."

Frank Hayes, of Illinois, vice president of the international organization, created the sensation of the afternoon session by declaring that the international organization was tottering on the brink of financial ruin and was facing the crisis of its existence. He blamed the lack of harmony among the Illinois district and international officials for the present condition.

President White, of the Iowa district, declared the calling of the special convention a monumental blunder, and ended his speech by urging that the Illinois strike be continued.

The convention adjourned until Monday morning, when the roll call by districts will be concluded.

as the Reformed Catholic and the Reformed Episcopal churches, respectively. The Reformed Catholic number only 1,250 communicants, while of the Reformed Episcopalians there are about 5,482.

The cause of origin of some of the branches is indicated by the name. For instance, there are General Baptists, Separate Baptists, United Baptists, Free Baptists, Freewill Baptists, United American Freewill Baptists, Primitive Baptists, General Six-Principles Baptists, Seventh Day Baptists, Duck River Baptists, and Two-Seed-in-the-Spirit Predestinarian Baptists.

The civil war caused splits, giving rise to Southern Methodist and Southern Baptist bodies. In these churches there is also color division. Two or three churches came into existence just after the close of the war as a protest against political preaching. Many of the branches of the Lutheran church are due to difference in nationality.

Of other branches, besides the Duck River Baptists, owing their names to localities, are the River Brethren and the Brethren, both of which are of the Brethren denomination. The former began existence on the Susquehanna river, the latter in York county, Pennsylvania. The Brethren, also Brethren, are called after the first bishop, as also the Schweickendefers.

The Negro Churches.
 Three of the newest churches mentioned are composed largely of colored communicants. One of these, the Church of God and Saints of Christ, accepts the Ten Commandments as a positive guide to salvation, and uses only scriptural names for its members. The "Church of the Living God" began business in 1899, and already has three branches. The Free Christian Zion Church of Christ, founded in 1905, protests against all attempts to tax members for the support of churches.

There were about 700 organizations in the main branch of the Salvation Army, with a membership of about 25,000. There were 450 organizations of Spiritualists, with over 35,000 members.

The report records the rapid disappearance of communistic societies, showing that of eight organizations mentioned in the census of 1890, only two are left, the survivors being remnants of the Shakers and of the Amana Society.

JOSEPH NEALON PAYS VISIT TO OLD HOME

Former Atlantan Winning Success at the Bar in El Paso, Texas.

Joseph M. Nealon, of El Paso, Texas, a former Atlanta boy and member of the Atlanta bar, who was recently elected district attorney of El Paso county, is in Atlanta for a few days visiting his old friends.

Going west several years ago, Mr. Nealon spent six months in Tucson, Ariz., and then located permanently in El Paso. He immediately began to take an active interest in the affairs of his new home city, and to win success at the bar. Four years ago he was put forward for the position of district attorney, but was defeated by a small majority. This year he ran again, and defeated his opponent for the democratic nomination by 899 votes.

Mr. Nealon stopped over in Atlanta on his way home from Quebec, where he went to attend the national convention of the Knights of Columbus, being a delegate representing the associate members of the state of Texas.

"El Paso is growing as fast as Atlanta, if not faster," said Mr. Nealon. "It is a truly wonderful city, and is making gigantic strides in every line of civic progress. El Paso is in the midst of the arid region, but is surrounded by a very fertile valley. A few years ago it was a garden spot until the people of Colorado began withdrawing so much water from the Rio Grande, diminishing the supply to the lower country, and even now is marvellously productive. The people are more interested in the reclamation project of the national government than in almost any other national political question."

Speaking of the people of his new home he said there were about 150 former Georgians now making their home in El Paso, and they were taking prominent part in the development of the city and all achieving success.
